

GATHERED HERE FOR CONFERENCE

La Follette's Supporters In First Congressional District Met At Hotel Myers.

PERRY WILDER WAS CHAIRMAN

Meeting Was Held To Select Candidates For Election As Delegates To The National Convention At Spring Primaries.

Forty-nine republicans from six counties, composing the first congressional district, met this afternoon in the hotel of the Myers hotel to discuss candidates for the election at the spring primaries as delegates to the national republican convention in Chicago in the interests of Robert M. La Follette, candidate for the presidential nomination.

Men who have been leaders in Senator La Follette's former campaigns from Racine, Kenosha, Walworth, Green, Rock and LaFayette counties were present when the meeting was called to order at two-thirty.

Perry Wilder of Edgerton, member of the republican state central committee, was chosen chairman and J. H. Snyder of Walworth county secretary.

In opening the meeting Chairman Wilder stated that the purpose of calling the gentlemen together from the six counties was not to discuss county, assembly, congressional or senatorial matters, but to select two delegates and two alternates in the interests of United States Senator Robert M. La Follette, to represent the first congressional district at the Chicago national republican convention.

Mr. Wilder continued that the state of Wisconsin was honored by having a candidate in the field for the nomination for president and it was the duty of every republican to rally to the support of his candidacy.

The meeting has been in contemplation for some time past and the leading adherents of Senator La Follette in the six different counties were invited to be present today.

SOCIALISTS TO MEET IN NEW YORK CITY

Delegates Are Arriving In New York for Annual Convention of the Socialist Ring.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 14.—A number of delegates have arrived in the city to attend the annual convention of the Socialist Ring, a national organization of socialists. The sessions are scheduled to begin tomorrow at the general headquarters of the organization in Rittenberg street.

JUNIOR PROMENADE COMES OFF TONIGHT

Largest Social Event of Year In University Circle Takes Place at Armory Tonight.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 14.—The Junior Promenade, the largest social event of the year at the University of Wisconsin, takes place in the university gymnasium tonight. The "prom" of this year promises to eclipse all previous events of its kind at the state institution. Hundreds of invitations have been sent out to upperclassmen and alumni of the university. A large state university orchestra will be present for the occasion, and an orchestra of forty players will furnish music for the "prom" and the concert proceeding.

ROCK COUNTY MEN IN AT THE SCORING

Five Local Men Take Part in the Butcher and Cheese

Of the five hundred forty-five entries and cheese factories, which have taken part in the dairy school scoring exhibitions at the state university which were organized last May, the following names represent Rock county: W. H. Krebs, Center; D. Owen, Evansville; E. S. Parulev, Footville; E. J. Simmons, Milton; T. P. Straw, Beloit.

All indications point to a very large number of exhibitors the coming year. Buttermakers and cheesemakers from this county, who desire to take part in these scoring exhibitions, should send for entry blanks as soon as possible to Math. Melnick, Madison, Wis.

NEW YORK CITY IS IN NEED OF CASH

Will Have to Get Law Passed Allowing It to Borrow More Money for Expenses.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 14.—New York city needs cash and needs it badly. The sale of $50,000,000 in city bonds, not yet started for today will "help some," but will not afford anything like the financial relief that the city authorities deem necessary. As a consequence they will probably apply to the legislature for relief in the form of legislation that will increase the borrowing capacity of the municipality. An amendment to the constitution of the state may be necessary, and that proposal would require two years to pass.

The present issue of $50,000,000 of long-term bonds makes a total of $155,000,000 of city securities placed on the market within a period of four months. This record is unprecedented in the history of the city, and the expenses of the municipality are growing at a rate that is causing much concern in the administration.

The cost of running the city government this year will be $143,572,266, an increase of $13,150,160 over last year, and $65,981,354 more than for the year 1906, which means an increase of more than 85 per cent in ten years. This amounts to a per capita expenditure of $26 for every man, woman and child in the city, or an average of about $160 a family, which is paid by taxing both the present and future generations. The present generation pays the assessments imposed upon it by the tax commissioners and future generations will have to redeem the enormous amount of bonds now outstanding.

The interest charge upon the people of New York is now more than $24,000,000 annually, almost as much as the total cost of running the city of Chicago, the second largest city of the country, and about $3 per capita of the population.

The enormous expense of running New York city is without a parallel. It can be compared only to the expense of the national government, and even here the metropolis suffers by comparison. While the expenses of the national government have increased very rapidly in recent years, the national debt has been decreasing at the same time and the interest charge upon the people of the United States annually is only a few thousand dollars more than that paid by the people of New York city, while the annual expenses of the national government are only four times as great as those of New York city.

DEPUTY FIRE CHIEF DROWNED AT FIRE

"Grand Old Man" of New York's Fire Department Is Drowned While Fighting Blaze.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 14.—Deputy Chief Charles W. Kruger, known for many years as "the grand old man of the fire department," lost his life today while leading his men in a desperate fight against the flames in Canal street. Kruger plunged through a trap door into a sub-basement filled with water and was drowned.

Miss Nomination—The gent that wants me for a valentine has got to scrap for me.

TAFT WILL VISIT THE NUTMEG STATE

Will Deliver Two Addresses at Hartford Tomorrow—To Speak at Yale Alumni Banquet.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Hartford, Conn., Feb. 14.—Great preparations are being made for the reception of Secretary Taft, who is coming to Hartford tomorrow to deliver two addresses. He will address a public meeting in Post Guard hall early in the evening and this will be followed by an address at the annual banquet of the Yale Alumni association. The secretary will remain in the city over Sunday, going on Monday to New Haven to attend the meeting of the Yale Corporation, of which he is a member.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MAINE VICTIMS

Former Chaplain of the Maine to Speak at Services for Victims Held in Washington.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Feb. 14.—Rev. Father John P. Chadwick, who was chaplain of the ill-fated Maine, is to deliver the address tonight at the annual memorial services held under the auspices of the Army and Navy Union. Tomorrow will be the tenth anniversary of the destruction of the battleship in Havana harbor when 265 lives were lost. Some of the victims of the explosion were buried at Havana and others in the Christian cemetery at Tampa, where flowers are placed on the graves of the victims each year.

ATTEMPT TO KILL TWO LITTLE SONS

That Is the Crime Charged Against Larry Marty of Albany Who Has Been Placed Under Arrest.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Beloit, Wis., Feb. 14.—Charged with threatening to kill his two little sons, Larry Marty of Albany, Wis., was arrested here Thursday. The two boys were with him at the time. Marty is a chevron-maker by trade and it is said that when he left his trade recently to go farming his wife left him. At that time of affairs he came here and was followed by a constable who carried a warrant supposed to have been the result of his wife's complaint to the authorities. Marty accompanied the officer back to Albany and a reconciliation with his spouse will probably be effected.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH LEADS TO ARRESTS

Mother and Two Sons Are Held Pending Investigation of the Father's Death.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Creston, Ia., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Belle Taylor whose husband was found mysteriously murdered last night, and her two sons, were arrested today and held pending an investigation into the death. The coroner admitted that there was nothing at this time to connect them with the killing.

AUTOMOBILE RACERS HAVE REACHED UTICA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Utica, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The three leading cars in the New York-Pittsburgh automobile tour reached here at 12:45.

AUTHORITIES TO CALL NO INQUEST

TO DETERMINE WHO KILLED MRS. MARTHA ANDERSON.

CONVINCED IT WAS SUICIDE

Effort Being Made to Establish Robbery as a Possible Motive for Murder—More Statements by Link Family.

No coroner's jury will be called upon to view the remains of the late Mrs. Martha Anderson, whose throat was cut in the strange old house on North Fifth street shortly after midnight Wednesday. District Attorney J. L. Fisher, when interviewed this afternoon, made the following statements:

"As all the surroundings and facts connected with the case point to suicide it does not seem to me that I would be warranted in putting the county to the expense of holding an inquest. Chief Appleby has investigated the matter very carefully, and has run down every possible clue. After this thorough investigation he informs me that he is convinced it is a case of suicide, and I have no doubt of it."

Not So Certain About Razor
George Anderson and Mrs. Ralph Baldwin, the two children of the dead woman, are not so certain today that the razor found in their mother's coat is not the same instrument which she kept for cutting her hair. They told the police that on the blade of the piece of cutlery which they had in mind was a trademark of an arrow or some such design. When the blood stains were washed from the razor at the station traces of a mark very similar to the one described but partially obliterated by the grinding down of the knife were disclosed.

Claim of Robbery Is Made
It is claimed that the woman had a small sum of money tied up in a pocket-handkerchief secreted in her room and that this cannot now be found. On this a theory of attempted robbery, with the woman driven mad by fright, seizing the razor first for defense and then, overpowered by a suicidal mania, turning it upon herself, has been elaborated. It is also advanced to provide a motive by which the police do not take much stock in the robbery idea as the woman was very poor and could not have had more than a few dollars.

Mrs. Link's Afterthoughts
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Link, Burr Harrison, and the children of Mrs. Anderson are among those who persistently cling to the belief in foul play. Mr. Link's statements of what he heard, however, include none of the subdued screams and voices described by his wife. He heard only something like the mewling or purring of a cat followed by a sort of wheezing noise and then something that sounded like a thump against a door or hood. The repetition of the wheezing noise started him after John Benson. He states that his little boy, Howard, has since told him about going out of the house with a pall and seeing a well-dressed man standing at Mrs. Anderson's door. Mrs. Link is now reported to recollect seeing a man on the porch in the afternoon and hearing footsteps fleeing from the house after the tragedy happened. Mr. and Mrs. Link formerly belonged to the Salvation Army, but are no longer actively identified with it. Mrs. Link has been ill for a long time with a nervous affliction, but insists that what she relates are facts and that she has not "been seeing things at night."

PAINTERS GATHER IN NEW ORLEANS

International Association of Master House Painters and Decorators Meets.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New Orleans, La., Feb. 14.—The local arrangements have been completed for the convention of the International Association of Master House Painters and Decorators of the United States and Canada, which is to meet in this city next Monday. It will be the twenty-fourth annual convention of the organization, which has a large membership extending to all parts of the two countries.

The present officers of the association are: President, Stewart N. Hughes of Toronto; vice president, Charles E. Vanoye of Newark; and secretary-treasurer, William E. Wall of Somerville, Mass.

Entertains Class: Mrs. William Rose entertained the young ladies of her Sunday school class at her home at 19 Oak lawn avenue yesterday afternoon. An interesting program of readings and recitations was given and Rev. H. M. Vaughan spoke. Ten was served at four o'clock.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Entertains Class: Mrs. William Rose entertained the young ladies of her Sunday school class at her home at 19 Oak lawn avenue yesterday afternoon. An interesting program of readings and recitations was given and Rev. H. M. Vaughan spoke. Ten was served at four o'clock.

JANESVILLE MARKETS.

Janesville, Feb. 11.
Bar Corn—$1.60@1.75 per ton.
Corn Meal—$2.75@3.25 per ton.
Feed Corn and Oats—$2.40@2.50 per ton.
Standard Middlings—$2.10@2.25 per ton.
Oil Meal—$1.75@1.85 per cwt.
Onions—$0.65@2 cents per bushel.
Hay—$11.00@12 per ton.
Straw—Baled, $6@7 per ton.
Tram—$2.10@2.25 per ton.
Tram—70c for 60 lbs.
Barley—78c.
Creamery Butter—34c.
Dairy Butter—30c and 31.
Eggs—Fresh, 22@24; cold storage, 18c.
Potatoes—62c bu.
Elgin Butter.
Elgin, Ill., Feb. 10.—Market firm at 33 1/2c a gain of 1c. Output for week in this district 451,300 lbs.

Sound Advice.
Live as healthy a life as you can, that's the thing. Keep your brain and body wholesome. I don't agree that the present-day boy plays games too much. Boys want heaps and heaps of fresh air. They cannot have too much.—The Captain.

Science and God.
The late Lord Kelvin's tremendous knowledge never shook his faith. To a man in religious difficulties he once wrote these memorable words: "I have never read any theological book myself, being wholly occupied with science, which I find full of the evidences of God. And I find no reading theological books needed to keep me contented with the religion of my childhood."—Black and White.

Motor Fuel in France.
The Paris motor omnibuses use a mixture of equal parts of alcohol and benzol for fuel. The average consumption is nine centiliters a ton kilometer.

DELEGATES INSTRUCTED TO VOTE FOR BRYAN

Is Chosen As Choice Of Wisconsin Democrats For President First, Last And All The Time.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 14.—Evan A. Evans was named as the permanent chairman today at the democratic state convention. The platform submitted by the resolution committee reaffirms allegiance to the time-honored principles of Jeffersonian democracy and declares hostility to the slum and hypocrisy of the republican national administration. The delegates to the Denver convention were instructed to vote for Bryan as the nominee for president first, last and all the time.

The report of the committee on resolutions was unanimously adopted by a rising vote. The convention then proceeded to place in nomination candidates for delegates at large.

Grady Accuses Aylward
A sensation was sprung at the conclusion of the nomination speeches for delegates at large when Daniel

Grady of Portage, one of the candidates, was given the floor on a question of personal privilege.

Mr. Grady charged that John A. Aylward, another of the candidates, had not always been a Bryan supporter and city several occasions when he said he had reason to believe Mr. Aylward was not in sympathy for the Nebraskaan. As soon as Mr. Grady had concluded Aylward mounted the platform and in a forceful manner stated that he always had been a Bryan supporter and was now for him first, last and all the time.

Delegates Chosen
The delegates at large from Wisconsin to the national democratic convention at Denver chosen this afternoon were as follows: Charles H. Welles of the Sixth Congressional district, Herbert H. Munson of Wisconsin, John A. Aylward of Madison and Melvin A. Hoyt of Milwaukee. The convention then adjourned sine die.

ARE PREPARING FOR CHICAGO CONVENTION

Subcommittee of Republican National Committee Makes Arrangements for Convention.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Feb. 14.—Members of the subcommittee of the republican national committee, with Chairman Harry New and Secretary Elmer Dyer, have gathered in Chicago and will spend the remainder of the week looking into the details of the arrangements for the national convention here in June. Their investigations will have to do chiefly with the convention hall. Chicago is so used to entertaining the big political gatherings that the problem of hotel accommodations, rates, etc., have solved themselves long ago and now call for little attention from the arrangements committee.

The convention will assemble in the Coliseum, where the republican national convention met four years ago. Old convention hands think it the best proportioned and arranged convention hall in the United States. The outside walls are of stone, with red-tiled roofs and the first impression is that of a city mummy. Inside the wide concave of steel, if black, would make the place look like a railway station; but, as they are white, the effect is pleasing, especially when decorated with flags and bunting. The committee intends that the interior decorations at the June convention shall be unusually elaborate and beautiful.

The total number of seats, according to present plans, will be about 11,000, which will include the seats provided in the balcony that extends around the hall. On the platform will be seats for the chairman, the secretaries of the convention and the members of the national committee. Immediately behind the platform will be a raised terrace with seats for specially invited guests, probably 1200 in number. The accommodations for the working newspapermen will, as usual, be found directly in front and at either end of the platform.

Underneath the platform, and stretching the whole length of the basement, will be one of the most curious sights of the convention—the paraphernalia and the workers who will communicate to the millions the proceedings of the convention. Into this space will be run more than 500 wires connecting directly with the principal newspapers of the country, and with the agencies that transmit news over wires. There will be fully 200 telephones and twice as many telegraph instruments. A thousand reporters, cameramen and messengers will move this intelligence machine.

There will be twelve entrances to the hall, exclusive of several subway entrances from the basement to the platform and guests sections. The Coliseum is located but a short distance from the loop district, in which are all the leading hotels and railway stations, and is easily reached by three or four car lines.

SNOW BALL CAUSES FISTIC ENCOUNTER

Two Young Men Up In Court This Morning As the Result of a Fight Starting in Fun.

Judge Pugh this morning fined Herman Knutke and John Doran $1 and costs each for fighting. At noon yesterday while going home from work one of the young men in question was hit by a snowball by the other. The result was a fight on North Franklin street in which the police finally took a hand and the two participants appeared in court this morning.

Hit vs. Heller
Mrs. Eliza Heller appeared before Judge Pugh this morning charged with using abusive language. The charge was preferred by her brother-in-law, Mr. H. Heller. $500 bond was set and the case was adjourned until the nineteenth. The case is the result of some family trouble.

Valentines in Schools: In the kindergarten rooms of the different schools home-made Valentines were distributed by the little people who had been busy for some weeks past with the pleasant work.

Bridge Club: Miss Marjory Mount entertained the Young Ladies' Bridge club at her home this afternoon. Tea was served at five-thirty.

GIVES HIMSELF UP TO CHICAGO POLICE

A. C. Tiedelle, Wanted on Charge of Taking Unlawful Deposits, Surrenders.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Ill., Feb. 14.—A. C. Tiedelle, the banker for whom a warrant was sworn out yesterday, surrendered himself to the police today. The charge against him is that he received deposits after he knew that his bank was insolvent.

THEODORA SHONTS WEDDED TOMORROW

Will Wed Duc de Chaulnes Tomorrow in New York at the Home of the Bride's Parents.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 14.—All arrangements have been perfected for the wedding tomorrow of Miss Theodora Shonts and the Duc de Chaulnes. The ceremony is to be performed at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore P. Shonts. The event will be marked by one of the gorgeous or spectacular effects that characterized the recent Vanderbilt wedding. The guest list will be confined to the relatives and close friends of the two families. The bride party will be small and the ceremony will be followed by a simple wedding breakfast. The French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand will be among those present. The Duc de Chaulnes and his bride will spend their honeymoon in Florida, and the couple will go abroad in May.

OLD BRODHEAD MAN DIES IN WATERLOO

Thomas A. Jackson, a Civil War Veteran and Ex-Assemblyman Dies at Age of 83.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Waterloo, Ia., Feb. 13.—Thomas A. Jackson, who was an old resident of Broadhead, died on a farm near Waterloo Wednesday. Mr. Jackson was born in Pennsylvania and moved to Broadhead after his marriage. When the war broke out he enlisted in company B of the 16th Wisconsin, and later was promoted to be captain. Upon his return he was elected sheriff of Green County and was a member of the state legislature in 1862 and 1870. He has lived at Broadhead for the last ten years. The body will be brought to Broadhead for burial.

MARKET REPORT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Feb. 14.—Cattle receipts, 25,000; market, strong; hogs, 3,500; 6,10; cows and heifers, 1,850@1.75; western, 2,500@1.75; calves, 5.25@5.75; Hog receipts, 38,000; market, 50c lower; light, 4.05@4.30; heavy, 4.15@4.25; mixed, 4.10@4.25; pigs, 3.50@4.20; bulk of sales, 4.25@4.30.
Sheep receipts, 7,000; market, steady; western, 2.25@2.35; natives, 2.00@2.20; lambs, 5.00@6.50.
Wheat: July—Opening, 83 1/2@84; high, 84 1/2; low, 83 1/2; closing, 84 1/2; asked. May—Opening, 83 1/2@84; high, 84 1/2; low, 83 1/2; closing, 84 1/2; asked.
Rye—Closing, 81 1/2.
Barley—Closing, 78@82.
Corn—May, 60 1/2; July, 59 1/2; Sept., 58 1/2.
Oats: Closing—May, old, 52 1/2@53; new, 50 1/2; July, 47 1/2; Sept., 47 1/2.
Flour—May, 12; chickens, 11 1/2; springers, 12.
Butter—Creamery, 22@23; dairy, 21@22.
Eggs—18 1/2@19.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miller-Olsen
At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Miller, their daughter Olive and Alfred Olsen were united in marriage last Thursday evening, Rev. R. M. Vaughan performing the ceremony. After the ceremony, which was at seven-thirty in the evening, a delicious supper was served. The families and immediate friends only were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen expect to leave for Minneapolis in a week or so, where they will make their future home. Their many friends extend their congratulations and wish them the best of luck in their new home.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Malcolm G. Jeffris, Malcolm O. Mount
William Smith, Louis A. Avery.
JEFFRIS, MOUNT, SMITH & AVERY
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS
Over Merchants' & Mechanics' Savings Bank, Janesville, Wis.

Thos. S. Nolan, H. W. Adams,
C. W. Reeder.
NOLAN, ADAMS & REEDER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
311-313 Jackson Bldg., Janesville, Wis.
300-308 Goodwin Building, Deloit, Wis.

E. D. McGOWAN, A. M. FISHER,
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS
809-310 Jackson Bldg.
Janesville, Wis. New Phone, 163.

DR. FREDERICK C. LINDBROM
OSTEOPATH
Suite 322-33 Hayes Block,
Rock Co. phone 129, Wis. phone 2214.
Janesville, Wis.
Licensed by Wisconsin Board of Medical Examiners.

J. J. CUNNINGHAM, LAWYER
No. 215 Hayes Block.
JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN

W. H. BLAIR
ARCHITECT.
Room 5, Phoebe Block, Janesville.

HILTON & SADLER
THE ARCHITECTS
Have had years of experience.
Call and see them.
OFFICE ON THE BRIDGE.
Janesville, Wis. Rock Co. phone 828.

Dr. T. F. Kennedy
DENTIST
CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK A SPECIALTY.
Tallman Block, over Hildner Drug Co.
Edwin F. Carpenter.
Henry F. Carpenter.
CARPENTER & CARPENTER
LAWYERS
Carpenter Block, Janesville, Wis.
New Phone 575.

B. F. Dunwiddie, Wm. G. Wheeler,
DUNWIDDIE & WHEELER
Attorneys and Counselors,
Janesville, Wis.
1216 W. Milwaukee St.

Delicious Hot Chocolate, with whipped cream, at Smith's Pharmacy, 10c.

INFANTRY COMPANY
SENT TO FAIRBANKS
MINERS STRIKE IN ALASKA CITY
THREATENS TROUBLE.
TROOPS TO GO ON SLEDS
Riotous Crowds Congregate on the Streets and Attempt to Capture Non-Union Men as They Arrive.

Washington, Feb. 14.—By direction of the president, Acting Secretary Oliver Thursday ordered a company of infantry from Fort Gibbon, in Alaska, to Fairbanks, in that territory, to preserve order during the mining strike in that section. This action was taken upon representation from the United States court in Alaska to the attorney general that the presence of federal troops was needed. Attorney-General Bonaparte promptly brought the matter to the attention of the president and by his instruction afterwards consulted with Acting Secretary Oliver, who, through General Bell, chief of staff, forwarded the necessary orders for the movement of troops to the military commander at Fort Gibbon.

Troops Will Go on Sleds.
This distance from Fort Gibbon to Fairbanks is 155 miles and the troops will be carried by sleds over that route, which is said to be a very good one. If there is urgent necessity for the presence of the soldiers at Fairbanks they can get there in four or five days, but under ordinary conditions the trip takes six or seven days.
Fairbanks is in the center of a mining country with a population of 7,000 or 8,000.

Persons in Washington familiar with the conditions existing at Fairbanks say the trouble is the outcome of a strike a year or more ago for higher wages and shorter hours for the miners. This the operators have resisted and their determination to operate their mines independently of the Western Federation of Miners may, it is feared, lead to trouble.

Riotous Mobs on Streets.
Fairbanks, Alaska, Feb. 14.—United States Marshal Perry has sworn in 250 special deputies for the protection of life and property against riotous mobs of strikers who are congregated on the streets. These mobs have been attempting to capture recent arrivals here with a view to deporting them.
The marshal's force has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp. All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who are congregated on the streets. These mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The
United States marshal at Fairbanks
has sworn in 250 special deputies for
the protection of life and property
against riotous mobs of strikers who
are congregated on the streets. These
mobs have been attempting to capture
recent arrivals here with a view to
deporting them. The marshal's force
has dispersed the rioters and guarantees protection to all men in camp.
All saloons are closed.

MANY ATTENDED
HOME GATHERING

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH'S AN-NUAL HOME GATHERING
MUCH ENJOYED.

MR. MATHESON'S ADDRESS

Speaks in Behalf of the Members of the Congregation, to Mr.
and Mrs. Denison.

Nearly six hundred people participated yesterday in the annual Home Gathering of the First Congregational church and the reunion was conceded to have been the most largely attended and successful ever held. The social hour from five to six afforded old and new friends an opportunity to meet, and a brief program given during this period was very much enjoyed. Two selections, excellently rendered by the Symphony orchestra under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lewis, were followed by the reading by the pastor of messages from absent members.
Some who were heard from were E. S.
Johnson of Chicago, Miss Lewis of Minneapolis, Mrs. Olin of New Mexico, Miss Rose Fenton of Alabama, and Frank Gray of California. Beautiful dramatic offerings in memory of those who have ended this life's pilgrimage, gave to the pulpit platform an attractive setting.

At half past six o'clock the big supper was served in the Sunday school rooms and the parlors and the assistance of fifty of the younger members was required to place the repast upon the tables. After the supper hour the program was resumed in the large auditorium.

The history of the year was presented in the form of a newspaper, with advertisements of a diverting character, an editorial by Rev. R. C.
Denison, and "loud stories" by H. C.
Smith who told about the children; W.
S. Jeffris, who reviewed the church improvements; Miss Frances Ryckman who told about the work of the society; and A. E. Matheson, who offered an appreciation of Mr. and Mrs.
Denison. The history was planned by Mrs. Anna Valentine Sutherland but owing to her illness, its preparation was completed and the manuscript read by W. S. Jeffris.

John M. Whitehead, the clerk, gave the summary of statistics for the year, showing among other things that the church which was organized here Feb.
11, 1845, with fifteen members, now has a total of 743. He spoke feelingly of the deaths of a number of the members and drew lessons from their lives for the good of those who remain. The work of planners and the part which the church as a great organization has in the work of the world were also touched upon.

Some of the principal officers elected for the ensuing year were: Sunday School Superintendent, J. A. Clark; Treasurer, Miss Anna Jeffris; and Clerk, J. M. Whitehead.

Concluding remarks relating to the vital purposes of the church were made by Rev. R. C. Denison who has been pastor of the local church for eleven years.

Mr. Matheson, in his appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Denison which was one of the pleasant contributions to the history, said in opening that the admiration of his subjects was so unanimous both in the church and city at large that diligent search had failed to reveal any counter sentiment—that nowhere was there even suggested an opening for a good natured argument.

Following are a few excerpts from this tribute:

"They came to us years ago in the vigor, strength, confidence, zeal, and beauty of young manhood and womanhood. As the years have passed we have all grown in strength and efficiency. We have thought his sermons the very best that could be preached. We have always most supported his efforts and our pastor's work and sermons. And yet, each year has shown him stronger and better, and we know that the coming years will continue to add glory and honor and strength to his work and his mission."

"There are four phases of Mr. Deni-son's work to which we shall briefly allude. His pulpit work, since his first appearance as a stranger among us to the present time, has been without exception, of a high order. He has given us the results of the intellectual and scholarly training of his early life, with unerring judgment and a knowledge of the human mind and heart, which has developed and matured through all his years of study, and above all, like golden threads, running through all his sermons, have been the words of Christian faith, hope, and love, the assurances of immortality, the lessons of God's tender and loving fatherhood, all of which have encouraged, ennobled, and inspired us. We have been led to see the eternal and spiritual beyond the temporal things of life."

"In the second place he has been a helper and friend of the people of this church. He has labored by the side of the sick and dying, comforted the bereaved, strengthened the despondent, and labored generally in the spirit of the Master for the glory of this kingdom."

"Again, Mr. Denison has filled a large and wholesome place in the life of the city of Janesville. He has been over ready to lend a hand in all that pertained to the civic, educational, social, and religious welfare of the whole community. In doing these things he has vanquished over sectarian and denominational barriers. We cannot say what he has thought of Congregational precedents, religious edicts, or church manuals and regulations. We approach the life of his office has led him to develop and enlarge the more democratic and social function and government in his interest in the larger things to be done."

"Lastly, he has been an important factor in the larger interests of the state. His voice has been heard in Janesville, and even in other states.
He has taken an active interest in the district, state, and national gatherings of Congregationalists."

"In saying these things we have not forgotten Mrs. Denison. She has a part in all of them. We do not always recognize it, but her influence and work are in evidence for those who will but look and behold how completely and successfully she enters into all these activities. She was trained in a minister's family, and she furnishes splendid evidence of the efficiency of that training. Mrs. Deni-son's wisdom and grace are shown in all departments of church activity.

She attends to a multitude of details, and never forgets or overlooks anything. She is a born organizer. Her executive ability is of a very high order. The Young People's society, our subsidary societies, the other organizations of the church, and the Sunday school are all subjects of her watchful eye. Even the trustees go to her in some emergencies. What she looks after the boys and girls of the church, knows every member of the parish by his or her name, answers the telephone so often that we cannot count the calls, and is a mine of information about all sorts of things from the finding of a needle to the size of the Home Gathering cake and the naming of the babies of the parish. She attends to a multitude of other things, and finds time to keep up to date by reading, study, and general culture. We almost forgot to say that she also teaches a large Sunday school class of young women."

Link and Pin
North-Western Road 727, the second day switch-engine, was taken off yesterday.

General Manager R. H. Ashton, Supt. of Telegraph W. Bailey and Supt. M. P. & M. R. Quayle left here yesterday on No. 501 for Milwaukee in business car No. 401.

Train Master, B. A. Morrison of Chicago was here yesterday.

Conductor Shipman has resumed work on Nos. 501 and 510 after being relieved for a few trips by W. P.
Johnson.

Conductor Dierker has resumed work on 319 and 322. Conductor Hollis was relieving him.

Engineer Brazzell resumed work on
No. 511 last evening. Engineer Crowley relieved him while off.

Engineer Hiller is relieving engineer Condit on Nos. 678 and 681.

Switchman Mulekums has furnished a new set of keys for the checker house in the Y. D. tower. The old set were stolen some time ago.

St. Paul Road
Engineer Allen and fireman Mohon-ey went out on 65 this morning with engine 612.

Engineer Hawthorne and fireman Lawrence were on 191 today with engine 1621.

1607 with the snowplow attached came up from Chicago on an extra last evening.

Engineer Schickel and fireman Kuehl took out 91 today with engine 688.

Engineer Weber and fireman Boltz came in extra this morning on engine 510.

U. W. METEORS WERE NOT FAST ENOUGH
Y. M. C. A. First Team Defeated Their Opponents Last Evening by a Score of 66 to 46

In a fast and furious game the local university students were defeated last evening by the Y. M. C. A. first team.
The game was fast from the start and at the close of the first half the Meteors were ahead by a score of 38 to 23.

The Y. M. C. A. first team took their usual brace at the beginning of the second half and by good team work and clever basket throwing won the game with a substantial lead.

The teams lined up as follows:
Y. M. C. A. C. W. Meteors
Matthews, Capt. Forward, Morse, Capt.
Kline, Right Forward, Dreyer
Semmet, Center, Caldwell
Baker, Left Guard, Langdon
Baker, Right Guard, Palmer
Booth, Substitute, Nuzum

INSANE PATIENTS
SAVED THE HOUSE
A Score of inmates of the Green County Asylum Rush to Aid Neighboring Farmer.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Monroe, Wis., Feb. 14.—A score of inmates of the Green county insane asylum, attracted by smoke issuing from the roof of the home of John Collentine, a neighboring farmer, the yesterday afternoon, hastened to the assistance of the family and succeeded in saving the house after the kitchen had been burned. The fire started in a woodbox used in the kitchen range and the wind driving the flames into the house, burned. The house was filled with smoke and the heat blistered the paint in rooms farthest from the fire.
Much of the household contents were removed, but everything left in the house was considerably damaged. A calf was sent to the city fire department and a bucket company arrived after the fire was extinguished.

The C. M. & St. P. railway will join with the Illinois Central in constructing a steel overland bridge at the crossing of the railroad north of Monroeville, which is regarded as a death trap by reason of the frequent accidents that have occurred there. The company appropriated $500 toward the cost of the bridge and the township has asked a like sum. The bridge will cost in the neighborhood of $5,000.
Misses Frances M. Trent and Ada
B. Williams will leave Tuesday for a pleasure trip through old Mexico.

Andrew Bontly sold his farm of 100 acres in Washington township to Peter Becker for $9,000. Mr. Becker's son-in-law, Edw. Marty, will conduct the farm.

Miss Grace Miller is visiting friends in Milwaukee.

Real Estate Transfers
Amy W. Taylor to C. F. Woodbury $3500 tract, lot in sec. 20 Avon, except, and with 1/4 sec. 27 Avon.

Edgar A. Weeks to John M. Hurns $8000 s.w. 1/4 sec. 30, pt. s. 1/2 s. 1/2 nw 1/4 sec. 30-2-12 La Prairie.

The Wicked Husband.
"Why does a man lie to his wife?"
asked a woman writer. Dear me; does he?—Duluth Herald.

Lincoln's Birthday
WAS DULY OBSERVED
Milton Observed the Event with Appropriate Exercises on Wednesday Last.

Feb. 12.—Lincoln day was observed here with appropriate exercises by the public school pupils, under the direction of Principal Whiteford. The program was presented at
G. A. R. hall and the post and Women's Relief Corps took part. The exercises were not only appropriate, but
of more than usual merit and worthy of a much larger hearing than they received.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY
WAS DULY OBSERVED

Milton Observed the Event with Appropriate Exercises on Wednesday Last.

Feb. 12.—Lincoln day was observed here with appropriate exercises by the public school pupils, under the direction of Principal Whiteford. The program was presented at
G. A. R. hall and the post and Women's Relief Corps took part. The exercises were not only appropriate, but
of more than usual merit and worthy of a much larger hearing than they received.

Mrs. Mary E. Post, mother of Dr.
G. W. Post and well known to most of our citizens, died Tuesday. The funeral services took place in Chicago
Friday and were conducted by Rev.
Dr. Phillips of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carr of Janesville were recent visitors at H. B.
Osborn's.

Congregational social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith on Wednesday evening next. Mrs. W. P. Smith is dangerously ill.

Miss Ellen Bates of Lansingburg, N.
Y., is being entertained by Prof. A. R.
Crandall and wife.

Mrs. E. C. Blumewick visited her brother Frank who is a patient in the Rockford hospital, on Monday.

W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. J. L.
Shaw Tuesday afternoon.

Supper for the benefit of the Firemen's fund at village hall Tuesday,
Feb. 25. Give the boys a lift.

Clifford Bullock, attending the university, visited Milton relatives this week.

Rev. Jno. Reynolds, presiding elder of this district, will preach at Pe-waukee and Waukegan, spent Saturday and Sunday here.

PERSONAL NEWS OF SUGAR RIVER CITY
What is Happening in Brodhead—Interesting Items and Personals.

Brodhead, Feb. 12.—Tonight "The Union Depot" will be given at the opera-house by the T. O. T. T., assisted by many of our townpeople.

On Tuesday evening the Brodhead band reorganized by the election of the following officers: President, H. G.
Schwartz; vice president, C. A.
Anderson; treasurer, P. Doherty; secretary, C. Guehen; librarian, H. Brod-beck; director, C. A. Anderson.

Miss Ora Knudsen was an Orford-ville visitor on Wednesday.

The Forsters' dance last evening was well attended, people being there from all the neighboring towns. Honor O. Cayton and sister Rose won the prize for the best waltz.

Mrs. Mayo Hartman visited in Deloit over Sunday.

Mrs. C. B. Adkinson is spending a few days in Janesville with her sister, John Sherman is at home from the university.

C. W. Carpenter spent the first of the week in Chicago on business.

M. Kemp, architect for the schoolhouse and the department store building, was in the city on Tuesday, overseeing the work.

Miss Mildred Schroeder of Plattville is a guest of friends in the city.

Miss E. P. Strahl of Hamilton, Neb., is spending a few days in the city,
the guest of her brother, Dolus Myers.

LOCAL BOWLERS MET DEFEAT AT CLINTON

In Third and Decisive Contest with Deloit Last Evening—Hastened to Forget the Score.

In the third and decisive bowling contest between the Deloit and Janesville teams at Clinton last evening, the Wetmorens of this city were welcomed by an overwhelming score. So decisive, indeed, was the victory that the local fans didn't take the trouble to remember the figures. Some of the local enthusiasts who witnessed contest were: J. Meadows, Robert Hosh-ett, L. Sherwood, P. Brown, D. Law-
P. Zimmerman, R. Clifton, Edward Welch, Eugene Hilley, F. Hennessey, J.
Hayes, and Joseph Hogan.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Hemorrhoids, Piles, or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

POULTRY MEN WILL MEET THIS EVENING
Exact Dates for the First Exposition
Will Be Fixed—Ben S. Myers
Will Be Engaged as Judge.

At McVear Bros' plumbing establishment this evening the Southern Wisconsin Poultry Association of Janesville will hold a special meeting to fix the exact dates of the show which is to be held during the early part of January, 1909, and to engage a judge. The services of Ben S. Myers of Crawfordville, Ind., will probably be secured in the latter capacity.
He is said to be one of the best informed poultry men in the country.

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED AT PUBLIC LIBRARY
List Includes Attractive Volumes on Travel, Government, and Science and Some of the Latest Fiction.

Included in the list of new books recently received at the Janesville public library are thirteen serious works on as many branches of human knowledge and study and some attractive fiction. It is as follows:

Citizen's Part in Government, by Elmer Ross.
Military Memorials of a Confederate, by Gen. Alexander.

From the Niger to the Nile, by David Alexander.
Chancery Management, by Bailey.
Lincoln in the Telegraph Office, by Hates.

Life and Letters of Lafcadio Hearn, by Hsaland.
Nutrition of Man, by Cliftenden.
The Congo and the African Conquests, by Richard Harding Davis.
Principles of Publicity, by DeWesse.
Ship Subsidies, by Dunmore.
The Shameless Diary of an Explorer, by Dunn.

The Red Reign in Russia, by Dur-land.
Dante Casagry's Book of Entertainments, by Glover.
When the Birds Go North Again, by Edna Hsaland.

Paradise Lost Today, by Kellogg.
Collected Verse, by Kellogg.
Money and Investments, by Hollins.
Sin and Society, by Ross.
Human Bullets, a Japanese soldier's experience in the Russo-Japanese war, by Takyoshi Sakurai.

In Quest of the Columbia, by Shuckleton.
Wild Animal Celebrities, by Velvin.
The Continuum of Opportunity, by Clark.

National Ideals Historically Traced,
by Hart.
America as a World Power, by Latimer.
Memories of My Life, by Sarah Bernhardt.

A "Wanted-To Purchase" advertisement will usually do the work of a half dozen detectives for you—finding the one man in the city who has what you are looking for.

WANT ADS.

WANTED.

WANTED—Clean, second-hand rug, for winding machinery, at cheap price.
WANTED—Immediately—Chamberlain. Also girls for private houses and hotels. Mrs.
K. McCarthy, 226 West Milwaukee St., both phones.
WANTED—Twin mattress to sell, $1.50 for each. Only. Repairer first class.
Wanted—An infant's single crib, not particularly as to wood. Address X 11, this column.
WANTED—Lady or gentleman to learn accounting. Moderate opportunity. Write to
J. W. Knott, 314 W. 1st St., Janesville, Wis.
WANTED—Loan of $1,000. First class security. Address 107, Thirtieth.
SALERMAN WANTED—Sell retail trade your clothing 100 per cent. and expenses to visit customers. Experience unnecessary. Discrepancy clear this, Toledo, Ohio.
WANTED—Immediately—A second-hand visitor type writer. Address 11, a care of this column.
CIGAR MAKERMAN WANTED—Experienced man. Salary $100 per month and expenses. For more information, write to
J. W. Knott, 314 W. 1st St., Janesville, Wis.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished house, 25 rooms; two bath; water closets; steam heat. Will be sold to suit. 101 South 1st St., Janesville, Wis.
FOR RENT—Steam heated flat, hardwood floor, bath, gas range, etc. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—Eight room house with bath, city and soft water, gas and electric lights.
Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—Furnished flat in good condition.
Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—A nine-room house, good repair; water and gas good. 101 South 1st St., Janesville, Wis.
FOR RENT—Furnished, heated (bath); one bath; one on ground floor. Inquire at 101 N.
Main St.
FOR RENT—Five-room, basement; city and soft water; gas and electric lights. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—Nicely furnished front room.
Price reasonable. 11 Cherry St.
FOR RENT—Housekeeping rooms. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—Two nice front rooms, furnished.
Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—Farm of 10 acres in town of Spring Valley. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—House and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—Aluminum, steam heated flat.
Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR RENT—Housekeeping rooms. Inquire
at 11, D street's clothing store.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Old newspapers put up in bundles suitable for shelf or under carpet use;
five cents per bundle at Gazette office.
FOR SALE—ON EXCHANGE—Sixty acres, good house and barn located at South Janesville. In the heart of fruit belt. What have you in exchange? Good city and farm property too numerous to mention. Call and see our list.
We are looking for a state secretary.
Price reasonable. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR SALE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR SALE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR SALE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR SALE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.

MISCELLANEOUS

At the patent medicine advertised in this paper for sale at Bennett's drug store.
FOR EXCHANGE—New 6-room house on corner lot in good location in city of Janesville.
Will exchange my interest of $1,000 for stock and farm machinery, hay, grain, etc. Address 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR EXCHANGE—An American Star line; between 100 N. and 100 S. Main St. in good condition. Inquire kindly leave at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR EXCHANGE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR EXCHANGE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR EXCHANGE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR EXCHANGE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.
FOR EXCHANGE—A good house and barn and non-half acre of land. No. 1 Fremont street. Inquire at 11, D street's clothing store.

Business Directory

THE 5 CENT THEATRE.
Changes program Monday, Wednesday and Friday, Matinee Saturday, 33 S. Main.

NICKELODEON.
Come and see new pictures. Change every Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday. Matinee Saturdays only.

NOTICE.
All who have wheels at Burgess' being repaired please call. I need the room.

TEXAS

I am going to locate in Texas and want to sell my house, barn and 2 lots on Oakland avenue. If I can make a quick sale will make special price. The house is new, with furnace, bath, city water,
etc. The barn is new and good.
Now get a move on yourself and Talk. J. E. BANFIELD.

LOWELL REALTY CO.

Both Phones. Hayes' Block

CORBYN G. DWIGHT, M.D.
207 Jackson Bldg.
Practice limited to the EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT.
Glasses fitted.
Consultation from 9 to 12 and 2 to 5 and by appointment.
New Phone 890 red. Old phone 2762.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Arthur Sullivan, a pioneer of southern Montana, died at Dillon, Mont., aged 90.
A. H. Cline, a prominent lumberman, was shot and instantly killed by Luko Banner, a wealthy merchant of Elk Park, N. C.
One boy was stabbed to death and three wounded during a fight among inmates of the correctional institution in Randall's Island, New York.
Charles Puccorino, said to be the leader of a Black Hand society which caused the murder of a wealthy Italian at Lake Charles, La., was arrested at Hastings, Cal.
After an exciting debate lasting six hours which developed into a riot on the floor of the Japanese house of representatives, the financial budget was passed by a majority of 102.
Capt. R. B. Underwood has been chosen for the command of the cruiser Colorado, vice Capt. Sidney Stanton, who will be appointed a member of the general board of the navy.
Judge W. H. Wallace of Kansas City, who has been enforcing the Sunday observance law, announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Missouri.
The British steamer Roda, Capt.
Burdie, from Huelva for New York with a cargo of iron ore, went ashore during a thick fog abreast of the Jones life-saving station, just below Amityville, Long Island.
Col. Andrew Wendell, a member of the squad of soldiers which captured J. Wilkes Booth, the assassin of Abraham Lincoln, and who was present when Booth was shot, died at his home in Chicago.

PROGRESS OF AUTO RACERS.

New York-to-Paris Cars Following Towpath of Canal.

Amsterdam, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The French car in the New York-to-Paris race, driven by St. Chaffrey, arrived here shortly before seven o'clock Thursday night. St. Chaffrey remained here until Friday.
Immediately after the French car came the American and Italian cars, which preceded on to Fonda, 11 miles to the west, where they stopped for the night. The automobiles are following the towpath of the canal.
This route was decided upon by the drivers after leaving Schoenectady in order to avoid the soft snow banks in the Mohawk valley.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The French car driven by August Pons in reported stalled between Croton and Ossining.
Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—Eugene Le Lievrier, Maurice Drelgho and Max Schneuman, the French automobilists who left New York Tuesday on a 22, 000-mile trip to Paris by way of Berlin and London, were delayed shortly after leaving this city Thursday and were not able to resume their trip until Friday.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, February
14, 1868.—Accident.—Mr. W. J. Cook-ins was thrown from a plough yesterday afternoon striking on the side of his head. A black eye was the result.

By a vote of six to three the Reconstruction Committee of Congress voted against the proposition to report articles of impeachment against President Johnson. Thad Stevens is thoroughly disgusted with what he calls the cowardice of the committee and of the party, and says this action will leave the republican party several states in the approaching presidential election.

Social Gathering.—A large and exceedingly pleasant party assembled last evening at the residence of Mr.
Joseph Bostwick on the invitation of the families of Messrs. Joseph and Robert Bostwick. It was one of the largest social gatherings of the season.

Mr. O. J. Dearborn and his wife celebrated their "crystal wedding" last evening. Many of their friends were present on the occasion.

How We Found Him.—In search of an item yesterday morning, we visited the police court and found the justice entirely alone. No scullion was before the bar to receive his deserts;

no hungry looking lawyer stood ready to assist frail humanity—for five dollars; but quiet repose, and the representative of justice was poring intently over a small volume. We inquired what interested him, and he held up to our vision a copy of Baxter's "Salutary Rest." We have hope for that court.

London, Feb. 13.—Mr. Debrauch introduced a bill into the House of Commons to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It provides for a committee of inquiry consisting of members of the House of Commons which is to visit the place of election and investigate the charges of bribery. After considerable debate the bill was read for the first time. The House then adjourned.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 13.—In the Assembly today, Mr. Smith's resolution instructing the committee on railroads to investigate into the necessity of some restraining charges for railroads, was adopted.

AT THE PLAY HOUSES

Miss Pearl Lewis who will appear as "Madelaine" in "Knobs o' Tomessee" at Myers Theatre on Saturday, Feb. 14th, matinee and night, was last season with "The Texas Sweetheart," which toured this section and made many friends by her excellent acting; being remembered by many music-lovers by her beautiful rendition of the two songs "Dearly" and
"The Song my Mother Used to Sing."
In "Knobs o' Tomessee" Miss Lewis introduces a number of songs which have proven a most enjoyable feature of the performance.

Apparently the Sunny South has afforded more than its share of material for the writers of fiction; the past few years, as the majority of the most popular novels and plays contain that Southern atmosphere which continually appeals to the general public.

"At the Old Cross Roads" with its scenes laid in the vicinity of Natchez, Miss., is one of those pleasing stories of the South in which the strong dramatic situation are blended with bright comedy lines, and the characters are taken from real life in that interesting district. The engagement of this well known play taken place at the Myers theatre Tuesday next and promises to call out one of the largest audiences that has ever assembled at the playhouse. Manager Arthur C. Alden has engaged a stronger cast than ever and while this is the seventh annual tour of the piece he has not allowed the production to deteriorate even in the slightest manner. Special scenery has been built this season.

MISS MARY THEODORA SHONTS Who Marries Duc d'Chauvines, of France, Next Sunday.

New York, Feb. 14.—Miss Mary Theodora Shonts, daughter of T. P.
Shonts, head of the Interborough-Metropolitan Consolidation, will be united in marriage to Duke of Chauvines next Sunday. Several titled foreigners are here to attend the wedding. Among them are the Duchess d'Uzes, sister of the duke; Prince Gallitzin, Princeess Helleskoff Baron De la Bouillie and Baron Louis de Conde.

While the duke in the license blank filled out "occupation—none," he seemed to have an eye to business, for he insisted upon the correct change when an embarrassed clerk forgot to hand him his $9 due.

The couple drew license 3753, after the blanks had been filled out in the following order, giving the required information in regard to the bride:
Name—Theodora Shonts.
Age—Twenty-six.
Address—133 East Thirty-fifth St.
Born—Knikkeke, Ill., U. S. A.
Married—No.
Divorced—No.
Father—Theodore P. Shonts.
Mother—Miller Drake Shonts.
Occupation—None.
The duke described himself as follows:
Name—Emmanuel Theodor Bernard
Duc de Chauvines.
Residence—1 Avenue Van Dyke, Paris.
Occupation—None.
Born—Hungary.
Father—Duc de Chauvines.
Mother—Princess R. Gallitzin.
Age—Twenty-six.
Married—No.
Divorced—No.
The duke passed over a $10 bill, which the clerk, without looking at the denomination, jammed into his trousers' pocket.
The French noble stirred uneasily and looked questioningly at the clerk, finally asked in puzzled tones:
"Pardon, sir, but what is the price of the license?"
"One dollar," said the clerk.
"But I gave you $10," began the duke. The clerk was scattering in embarrassment and was red to the roots of his hair, as he handed out the bill and after one look hurriedly passed over $9 in change.
With many movements of his high hat the duke and his party retired by a stairway and made their escape from the crowd.

To Kill Predatory Worms.
A half teaspoonful of salt-petre dissolved in a quart of water and applied when the earth in pots is dry will kill white worms.

Buy it in Janesville.

Do it in Janesville.

RIDGELY WILL HEAD BANK

COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY IS GOING TO KANSAS CITY.

Apparently Reliable Report That He Has Accepted Presidency of National Bank of Commerce.

Washington, Feb. 14.—It is stated on what is believed to be good authority that W. B. Ridgely, comptroller of the currency, has decided to accept the presidency of the reorganized National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City, Mo., which suspended payment during the late financial stringency.
Mr. Ridgely is now in New York arranging certain matters. It is believed, preparatory to his taking active control of the bank.

Lawrence O. Murray, now assistant secretary of the department of commerce and labor, it is understood will succeed Mr. Ridgely as comptroller of the currency. Unless something unexpected occurs to disarrange present plans, the changes incident to Mr.
Ridgely's retirement will take place at an early date.

New York, Feb. 14.—Comptroller of the Currency Ridgely, while in town Thursday, discussed with Vice-President Frank Vanderlip of the National City bank, plans for the rehabilitation of the National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Ridgely could not be reached to affirm the report that he has decided to accept the presidency of the Kansas City institution, but it was learned that until the plans for the restoration of the bank's stability had been definitely concluded, the selection of new officers was considered premature by those most directly concerned. What progress toward rehabilitation had been made was not made known.
Comptroller Ridgely left for Washington Thursday night.

NEW AMERICAN SKI RECORD.

John E. Venson Jumps 116 Feet at Close of Duluth Tourney.

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 14.—Following a day's postponement on account of soft weather, the fourth annual tournament of the National Ski Association of America was wound up here Thursday afternoon on Chester Creek Hill.
The large crowd that had gathered with the expectation of seeing a new American record established, was getting ready to return home disappointed, when John Venson, a director of the local club, hung up a special prize for the rider that could beat 110 feet.
A number of them tried it, but all fell short. Then John E. Venson came tearing down the mammoth slide, shot through the air and landed 116 feet away from the seawall. The specta-tators roared themselves hoarse and the champion was carried around on the shoulders of a number of admirers. It was the greatest jump that has ever been made in America.

PAID FOR LOVE LETTERS.

Col. Snell's Correspondence with Clinton School Girls.

Clinton, Ill., Feb. 14.—Charles Cline, assistant postmaster of Clinton since 1891, refused to give the names of school girls with whom millionaire Col. Thomas Snell corresponded, in the will case Thursday.
He admitted that he knew the names of most of the girls, ranging in age from 12 to 18 years, for whom the eccentric old man routed private boxes in the Clinton post office that they might send to and receive letters from Col. Snell, but said most of them were from the best Clinton families and had now grown to womanhood.
The witness told how the aged millionaire wrote love notes daily to numbers of schoolgirls, in which he inclosed from $5 to $20 in bills. He would govern the amounts returned to the writers according to the number of terms of endowment and suggestive declarations.

Chicago Auditorium Doomed.
Chicago, Feb. 14.—It is reasonably certain that the Auditorium theater, which Heinrich Corried once observed was the finest on the American continent, will pass into history after next year. The plans of the directors of the Chicago association are to tear out the theater, which never has been a profitable investment, even when conducted as a bargain counter for vaudeville and musical comedies, and remodel the whole Auditorium either for hotel or office purposes.

Receiver Named for Railway.
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—On representations made by George A. Fornall & Co., a banking firm of Boston,
the Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville Railroad company was placed in the hands of a receiver in the United States circuit court into Thursday afternoon. James P. Goodrich was appointed receiver and after filing a bond of $50,000 left for Cincinnati to take charge of the property.

Temperance Worker Is Dead.
Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 14.—Mrs.
Clara C. Hoffman, president of the Missouri W. C. T. U., died at her home here Thursday night after a long illness, aged 55 years. Mrs. Hoffman was corresponding secretary of the National W. C. T. U. and was well known as a national temperance worker.

Two Trainmen Are Killed.
Chester, Pa., Feb. 14.—A special train on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad carrying the Philadelphia orchestra from Wilmington to Philadelphia, crashed into a freight train at Folsom, Pa., near here, Thursday night. The engineer and fireman of the special train were killed.

Some Consolation.

Ill-fate! If the world were good for nothing else, it is a fine subject for speculation.

MYERS THEATRE

PETER L. MYERS, MANAGER.
1870—38TH YEAR—1908
The Leading Theatre of Southern Wisconsin.
New Phone 609. Wisconsin Phone 5602

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17
GREATEST OF ALL MOTION PICTURES

BEN-HUR

Thaw-White Tragedy

The Most Talked Of Case in the World

Assassination and Funeral of President McKinley

—AND—

Electrocution of Czolgosz

His Assassin

More Sensational Than Fiction—Don't Fail to See It.

Prices—15, 25, 35 and 50c.
Seats now on sale at box office.

FREE

Saturday, Feb. 15th

CHINA PLATE

In addition to usual checks with Spices, Extract, Chocolate, Cocoa, Tea, Coffee, Etc.
SUGARS AT COST

Old Phone 2718 New Phone 1036
18 South Main St.

GREAT COMBINATION SALE

.....AT THE.....

EAST SIDE HITCH BARN

The next Sale Day is to be Feb. 20th. Everything will be sold at auction—Horses, cattle, hogs, wagons, farm implements. Bring anything you have for sale and let us auction it off. The East Side Hitch Barn conducts this sale so as to please everybody and to make friends. It's the best hitch barn in Southern Wisconsin.

Ladies' waiting room.
Harness shop. Shoe shop.

M. E. HILTON, Prop.

DOES IT PAY?

Does it pay to sell whole milk when you can get as much for the cream and still have the skim milk for feed?
Farmers, study this proposition carefully. Just because your father hauled milk to the factory don't think you are obliged to do the same.

There is no doubt, that with proper care and feeding the farmer who uses a hand separator and feeds his skim milk will be richer at the end of the year than the farmer who hauls his milk to the factory.

Figure how many calves and pigs you can raise with a hand separator and how much time and money you save on the hauling proposition.

Ship us your cream and let us prove to you that Janesville is the best market for cream. Come and see us and learn our way of doing business. All that is fair in weight, test, and price.

SHURTLEFF COMPANY

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

The Janesville Gazette

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

WHOLESALE SUBSCRIPTIONS.
Daily Edition—By Carrier, $2.00
One Month, $5.00
Three Months, $14.00
Six Months, $26.00
One Year, $48.00
CASH IN ADVANCE.

RETAIL SUBSCRIPTIONS.
Daily Edition—By Carrier, $2.00
One Month, $5.00
Three Months, $14.00
Six Months, $26.00
One Year, $48.00
CASH IN ADVANCE.

ADVERTISING RATES.
First Edition—One Year, $1.50
Second Edition—One Year, $1.00
Third Edition—One Year, $1.00
Fourth Edition—One Year, $1.00
Fifth Edition—One Year, $1.00
Sixth Edition—One Year, $1.00
Seventh Edition—One Year, $1.00
Eighth Edition—One Year, $1.00
Ninth Edition—One Year, $1.00
Tenth Edition—One Year, $1.00

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Threatening with snow this afternoon and in east and south portions tonight, colder tonight, Saturday fair.

GAZETTE JANUARY CIRCULATION

Sworn circulation statement of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette for January, 1908.

Days	Copies	Copies
1.....	3987	3987
2.....	4005	4005
3.....	4005	4005
4.....	4005	4005
5.....	4005	4005
6.....	4005	4005
7.....	4005	4005
8.....	4005	4005
9.....	4005	4005
10.....	4005	4005
11.....	4005	4005
12.....	4005	4005
13.....	4005	4005
14.....	4005	4005
15.....	4005	4005
16.....	4005	4005
17.....	4005	4005
18.....	4005	4005
19.....	4005	4005
20.....	4005	4005
21.....	4005	4005
22.....	4005	4005
23.....	4005	4005
24.....	4005	4005
25.....	4005	4005
26.....	4005	4005
27.....	4005	4005
28.....	4005	4005
29.....	4005	4005
30.....	4005	4005
31.....	4005	4005
Total for month.....	104,301	104,301

104,301 divided by 26, total number of issues, 4011 Daily average.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

Days	Copies	Copies
1.....	2268	2268
2.....	2268	2268
3.....	2268	2268
4.....	2268	2268
5.....	2268	2268
6.....	2268	2268
7.....	2268	2268
8.....	2268	2268
9.....	2268	2268
10.....	2268	2268
11.....	2268	2268
12.....	2268	2268
13.....	2268	2268
14.....	2268	2268
15.....	2268	2268
16.....	2268	2268
17.....	2268	2268
18.....	2268	2268
19.....	2268	2268
20.....	2268	2268
21.....	2268	2268
22.....	2268	2268
23.....	2268	2268
24.....	2268	2268
25.....	2268	2268
26.....	2268	2268
27.....	2268	2268
28.....	2268	2268
29.....	2268	2268
30.....	2268	2268
31.....	2268	2268
Total for month.....	20,580	20,580

20,580 divided by 26, total number of issues, 791 Semi-Weekly average.

This is a correct report of the circulation of the Janesville Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette for January, 1908, and represents the actual number of papers printed and circulated.

IF, I, J. L. JESS, Business Mgr.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of February, 1908.

JENNIE L. KENDALL, (Seal) Notary Public.

My commission expires Feb. 11, 1911.

THE LIBRARY

Just at the present time the members of the library board have under discussion the question of keeping the city library open on Sunday afternoon. This is a matter which should be carefully considered. Much can be said in favor of such a plan. Much that should have influence on its adoption by the board. Sunday is a day of rest. It is a day when even the hardest worker can take some relaxation from his weekly toil. What rests a person more than reading a good book? If the opportunity is offered it is certain many who have not private libraries at their disposal, who can not buy the latest magazines as they come out, would be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity of going to the library and enjoying the privileges there offered. It is worth considering and deciding with deliberation. If only a dozen availed themselves of the chances of reading offered it would be worth the extra hours it would entail.

DEMOCRATS IN ACTION

For the first time in years the Wisconsin democrats can be seen in action. The Milwaukee state convention shows a determination on the part of the Wisconsin followers of Bryan and Bryanism to step to the front once more. However, their party is so split by dissensions that the hold front they are exhibiting will be of little avail. They will place candidates in the field, will adopt a platform, but there the work will end. The Denver convention will put William Jennings Bryan in nomination and then will come the election in November and the republican party will again win out. The old days of torchlight processions and such are gone, never to return. Today's campaigns are different. The enthusiasm is missing and cold, plain facts win.

CITY STREETS

Despite the rain and thaw of the last few days the city streets are in fairly good condition. Street commissioner Bennett has had his force of men at work keeping them as clean as circumstances permit and if the property owners would do the same with their walks we might well call Janesville the City Beautiful without waiting for the park and Pleasure Drive Association.

Janesville again comes to the front in sensationalism. Three deaths, all with an element of mystery, make good basis for sensational reports to be sent out.

Roosevelt still carries the big stick and has not been scared by the recent bankers' panic. He does not seem afraid of the giant of commerce at all.

False alarms of spring should not be mistaken for the real article. They are liable to happen many times before the genuine article reaches us.

This is the time of church suppers and church work. Even society pauses in its card games to join in the general spirit of the occasions.

Taft has captured the Ohio delegation, but Faraker is not content to think he is beaten.

Madison is still the storm center politically although the democrats are in Milwaukee in solemn convulse.

That groundhog was right. Winter is not over yet.

PLAN CAMPFIRE FOR THE TWENTY-FIRST

Edgerton G. A. R. Post to Hold Twenty-fourth Annual Gathering Shortly.

Edgerton, Feb. 14.—H. S. Swift Post No. 147 will hold its 24th annual campfire at Royal hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 18th. Department commander of Madison will be present and deliver the address of the evening. Following in the program: Music, High School orchestra; Prayer, Alex. Campbell; Solo, Mrs. Mike Schmidt; Address, Dept. Com. John C. Martin; Piano Duet, Misses Post; Music, High School orchestra; Recitation, Emily Watson; Piano Solo, Misses Post; Piano Solo, "Wisconsin's War Governor," Will Dickson; Music, High School orchestra; Recitation, Doris Clarke; Solo and Chorus, Ethel and Mable Ogden; Music, Quartette; Piano Duet, Misses Post; Music, High School orchestra.

The firemen's annual ball will be held in Academy hall on Friday evening, Feb. 28th.

The men's club will hold a meeting on this Friday evening at the home of Dr. A. P. Nickelson.

The music on Wednesday evening at the M. E. church under Mrs. Haylock's direction was well attended and much appreciated by those present.

The Ladies of St. Rose will serve a supper in T. A. B. hall on Tuesday, Feb. 25th.

A sleighload of young people went over to Milton Junction Monday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Farman entertained a small company on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Baumgartner are in Fond du Lac this week attending the wedding of Alb. Baumgartner on Wednesday.

The recent thaw has brought some tobacco in case.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson welcomed a baby girl to their home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keenan of Madison were guests of their son, Harry Keenan, a few days this week.

Mrs. J. C. Lund is visiting in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Mrs. Fred Campbell was a Milton visitor a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lenter were Milwaukee visitors during the week.

R. J. Muller was a Janesville visitor on Thursday.

Mrs. S. Skinner is suffering from the grip.

Wm. Davis having given up possession of his home recently sold, the family have moved into the rooms occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Davis' health is some little improved.

Mrs. Dan Edwards is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jeannette Brance, in Janesville township.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Greenwood of Milwaukee welcomed a small son one day this week.

Miss Anna Crandall of Chippewa Falls, a granddaughter of Mrs. Edwards, who is well known here, is just returning home after a few weeks away which injured her skull and numbered her mental faculties.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Martha Anderson

The funeral of Mrs. Martha Anderson will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the Oak Hill chapel. The interment will be in the Oak Hill cemetery.

IS SURPRISED BY FRIENDS ON HER 15TH BIRTHDAY

High School Friends of Miss Alice Strampe Give Her a Pleasant Surprise Last Night.

Miss Alice Strampe was surprised last evening about twenty of her high school friends, it being her 15th birthday. Refreshments were served after which the evening was pleasantly spent with games and music. Those present were: Hazel Harrington, Olga Zerbel, Clara McCowan, Gertrude McGinley, Alice Gregory, Maude Mahle, Nellie Harrison, Genevieve Cox, Georgia Collins, Thomas Kelly, Charles Elmer, Frank Hennessy, John Riley, George Berger, Bonnie Pilleman, John Brown, and Dallas O'Donnell.

PERSONAL MENTION.

George Scareff returned to Madison this morning to resume his work at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. George King are in Monroe today to attend the funeral of Mrs. King's father, Mr. E. C. Bennett.

Mrs. Thomas Edden is in North Fond du Lac visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Melin.

Mr. T. Blakey of Round Valley, Kansas, is spending the day with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Lynn Hall of Skaneateles, New York, is visiting her cousin, Mr. A. P. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKay, Misses Elizabeth McKay and Emma Richardson, and Mr. Charles Quares left for Madison this morning, where they will attend the Junior Prom tonight. Douglas McKay returned last evening. Mr. and Mrs. McKay will entertain the Alpha Delta Phi house party, of which Douglas McKay is a member.

Mrs. J. S. Taylor and son went to Wisconsin this morning to visit friends here.

Miss Martha Lietz has gone to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for a few weeks visit with friends.

Miss Anna Cutler returned this morning from Albany where she has been visiting.

Uncle Eben.

"Dar ain' no use tryin' to tell me dat time is money," said Uncle Eben. "It was some o' deshere financial folks would have got up some stock water'n' scheme for puttin' 18 or 20 months in de year."

MARKING THE TWENTY-SEVENTH.

We do not make the world, and are not responsible for its fate; but we can make life a fine art and, taking things as we find them, like wise men, mold them as may best serve our own ends.—John Inglesant.

COULDN'T FIND THE REMNANTS

Remarkable Disappearance That Puzzled the Hired Girl.

A woman who goes in for the higher art has a miniature Venus de Milo standing on the piano, just to show the casual caller that she's wise as to what's what.

This woman has the Venus and she also has a new hired girl who comes from furin shores.

In dusting the piano the other morning, while her mistress was out doing the marketing, the girl bowed over the Venus. She picked it up, looked up also a chip or two that had been knocked off the statuette, and then set it in place and stood it up to see if it looked all right.

When the mistress arrived home an hour later she found the girl down on her knees peering under the piano, looking over the floor and looking in various other directions, all of which suggested that she might be looking for something.

"And what is the matter?" asked the mistress of the home in surprise.

"Oh, I knocked over the statuette," lamented the girl, pointing to Venus.

"But it doesn't seem to have damaged it any."

"Yes, it did," insisted the girl, almost tearfully. "It broke off both arms, neck and I haven't been able to find the pieces."

HAD NO LIKING FOR MUMMIES.

Servants of Great Writer Did Not Share His Hobby.

Pierre Loti, the French novelist, once obtained a new acquisition to his weird and wonderful collection of Egyptian mummies. It was that of a young princess, with gilded face, almost as expressive under its mask as it must have been in life. This mummy, one of the best in his collection, accompanied in his study "the small that creeps" from a winding sheet when a mummy is half unrolled.

Loti's grievance was that his servants would not move or touch his mummies under any circumstances.

"Only think!" he said. "Not one of my servants would touch this beautiful young woman. They are so superstitious about the dead—I had to carry her upstairs myself. And, would you believe me, as I reached the landing it suddenly flashed through my mind that I was carrying a corpse. I seemed to feel the chill of the dead breath penetrate my own."

Noticeable among the other embalmed bodies of dead and gone Egyptians in Loti's study was that of a little three-year-old girl, who, stared down with, sightless eyes, on her finger as he sat writing his romances and plays in the still watches of the night.

Moral Effects of Athletics.

Aside from its physical effect, the moral effect of athletics, in the case of the soldier at least, is of no small value. My experience has been that men are less likely to drink in the football or baseball season, even though they may be addicted to the use of intoxicants. And thus no special effort may have been made along these lines by those in charge of the sports. The class of men who go in for athletics and excel in such contests are the most desirable soldiers and the best all around men. Still another advantage of athletics is that good athletic teams and the reputation for a past of having championship teams draw good recruits and soldiers to enlist there.—Army and Navy Life.

He Spoke.

"Speak to me," she pleaded, and looked into his deep brown eyes.

"Speak to me," she repeated, and stroked his soft curly hair. And this he could not resist. "How-snow," he said.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Beauty's cream, a satin skin, secured using Nolin Skin Cream and Nolin Skin Complexion Powder, only 25 Cents.

NOTICE OF SALE

In the District Court of the United States, FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN.

In the Matter of the BURLICK, MURRAY HARDWARE COMPANY, Bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to an order made in the matter of the bankruptcy of the Burlick, Murray Hardware Company, in the district court of the United States for the Western district of Wisconsin, I shall offer at a public or private sale, to the highest and best bidder, on the 22nd day of February, 1908, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the Burlick, Murray Hardware Company store, No. 12 South River street, in the city of Janesville, Wisconsin, the personal property of said bankrupt, consisting of hardware, furnishings, sundries, auto, show cases and fixtures, and all uncollected accounts, remaining in my hands as trustee.

Terms of sale, cash on day of sale, subject to confirmation by the court.

The right is reserved in the court to reject any or all bids. A list of such uncollected accounts can be seen at the above address on application to the undersigned.

Dated Feb. 10th, 1908.

C. N. VAN KIRK, Trustee in Bankruptcy.

J. C. MURPHY, Attorney for Trustee.

E. H. PELTON

Tin Shop.

REPAIRING OF ALL KINDS.

Prompt Service.

New Phone 819 Red.

113 East Milwaukee Street.

Where the finest biscuit, cake, hot-breads, crusts or puddings are required Royal is indispensable.

ROYAL Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

Not only for rich or fine food or for special times or service. Royal is equally valuable in the preparation of plain, substantial, every-day foods, for all occasions. It makes the food more tasty, nutritious and wholesome.

Confidence and Success.

The man who has mastered his temper, disciplined his mind, schooled himself so as to conform to the amenities and pleasantness of life is on the broad road to success, for others will be attracted towards him as the flies to honey, he will beget confidence, and confidence is one of the corner stones which must be laid strong and deep before you can commence to build the edifice called success.

True Friendship a Great Gift.

Most of all men need the grip of the hand of a fellow and the nearness of a life on which they can draw. To be a true friend to any man is to give him the greatest gift we have to impart. To walk in comradeship with our fellows, being true always to the best in ourselves, is to help them best to that which is great and true. To walk ourselves in friendship with things infinite and holy is to find eternal life.

In These Rapid Days.

The world hurries along so rapidly that before you have time to say: "I can't," somebody else is ready to say: "I can."—John C. Maxwell.

Apples for Sleeplessness.

The apple is a fruit that few people are familiar with its remarkable medicinal qualities. But one of the best things a person can do to keep in good health and to keep sound is to eat an apple just before going to bed. The apple is an excellent brain food, because it has in easily digested shape, more phosphoric acid than any other fruit.

Hold On to Your Surplus Diamonds.

Editor of a jeweler's trade paper says the poor are investing in diamonds. This is a tip. Don't give yours to the Salvation Army. There is still a market for them.

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

A SIMPLE STORY

All about two numbers in White Muslins for waists and dresses.

HOW WE GOT THEM. A manufacturer anxious to do business, who had on hand several thousand pieces of WHITE MUSLINS which he owned at old prices sold us what we wanted at very LOW FIGURES.

WHY WE SELL THEM SO LOW. We could easily get more than what we ask for these muslins, but we know it will strengthen the white goods department, create a good impression by giving people the benefit of this fortunate purchase, make friends for us to sell them LOW.

ABOUT THE STYLE. These WHITE MUSLINS come in plain and, broken checks and plaids, some with embroidered dots and checks in a large variety of designs.

OUR PRICES. There are two lots—both 28 inches wide. THE PARISIAN MERCERIZED QUALITY while fine enough to sell for 35c to 40c, we offer at 25c. THE ORGANDIE CHECKS, the fine grade of which is apparent to any woman, we offer at 20c. We have a good supply of them now but predict a large sale. Such values are exceptional. Wise ones will buy early.

The New Dress Goods

Several hundred pieces are here, spring and summer styles, all colors, many weights, materials for all occasions, and NOW is the time to call and get first pick.

Ready-to-Wear Garments

We are showing NEW SPRING CREATIONS in SKIRTS, SUITS, AUTOMOBILE COATS, SHIRT WAISTS. A beautiful assortment of strictly late things for women who have to buy early. We do not claim that our stock of SKIRTS and SUITS is as complete as it will be in about ten days. Manufacturers are working on our orders and hurrying out shipments as fast as they can. A good time to buy before we get rushed in our ALTERATION DEPARTMENT.

I CAN PAY YOU

50c per hr. spare times, $3.00 per day or $175.00 per month, just as soon as you are able to Teach The Zodiac.

Text-books free and examinations as desired. Do not call after 7 p. m. Prof. Z., new phone 457. 51 Cherry St., Janesville.

NOLAN BROS.

Sale on fancy Yellow Bananas, only 10c per dozen. Strictly fancy Baldwin Apples, per bushel.....50c 17c size Navel Oranges, per dozen.....20c 15c size Navel Oranges, per dozen.....25c Homomato Mince Meat, lb. 15c Mince Meat, per pkg. 10c, 3 for.....25c Calumet Baking Powder and K. C. Baking Powder, 100 Pickles, per doz.....13c Sweet Pickles, per quart.....25c Best Canned Tomatoes, per can 12c, 2 for.....25c Best Can Corn, per can.....7c Early June Peas, per can.....8c Finest Canned Pumpkin, per can 10c, 3 for.....25c Best Canned Blackberries, per can.....10c Finest Cooked Ham, sliced, lb.....25c Armour High Grade Bacon, lb.....18c Armour High Grade Butterine, lb.....19c IXL Laundry Starch, per pkg. 5c Bathing Soap, per bottle.....5c Fancy Yellow or Red Onions, per peck.....25c Extra fancy Evaporated Peaches, lb.....18c 40 to 50 Size Prunes, lb. 10c, 3 for.....25c Fancy Popping corn, lb.....4c Holland Cabbage, Turnips and Parsnips.

NOLAN BROS.

New phone, 537 blk; Old, 4204.

EXTRA TRACES!

Good heavy chain traces, 1 1/2, 1 3/4, and 2 inch, in good condition at 75c each.

FRANK SADLER

New phone Red 227 East end of Court St. Bridge.

Rooms, 50c and $1.00.

SANITARY, PLEASANT,

Convenient, Cafe and Buffet in connection. We solicit only the best.

HOTEL LONDON.

W. M. Wells, Prop.

Corner Milwaukee and Bluff Streets.

OLD BRUSHED BRASS CANDLE STICKS

All styles All shapes All sizes All new All Prices But not all sold

See what they are at—

O. H. PYPER'S

"THE JEWELER."

Special Saturday.

SALT WATER TAFFY, a delightful chewing candy, in five different flavors. Each piece wrapped separately and each a sweet, rich mouthful.

20c LB. SATURDAY SPECIAL.

Over four tons sold in Janesville in five months. Eat it once and you will always want it.

PALACE OF SWEETS

On the Bridge

PIERSON & PORTER, Props.

"They Know How."

F. E. WILLIAMS

OPTICIAN

Every pair glasses a fit. New finger piece mountings to show you.

THE WHITE HOUSE BARBER SHOP

FRANK NEQUETTE

154 N. Main St.

EVERYBODY WANTS THE BEST

Everybody can get their laundry done up best here. Your satisfaction is our success. We will not let your shirt go out of this laundry until it is a complete job. Every garment is carefully inspected before it is wrapped, and must look right before it leaves. We are more interested in its appearance than you are.

Our machinery is the latest improved, and our help is competent. Let your clothes come to us.

Riverside Laundry

Next M. & M. Bank. Old 2231—PHONES—New 162

"Sure to Please."

CURLER BROS.

459 Western Ave.

SMOKED HAMS AND BACON.

Deliveries promptly.

New phone, 1908 blk. Old phone 3462.

ROOMS 50c TO $1.00

HOTEL LONDON

Under new and able management of W. M. Wells, presents one of the best hostleries in Janesville. Cafe in connection with good home-cooked meals at 25c.

GOOD COFFEE

a necessity to a good meal. Good Coffee and lunch at all hours at the

CHOP SUEY RESTAURANT

J. E. MEYER, PROP. Regular Meals 25c. 7 So. Main.

20c CANDIES 20c

Butter Scotch, the old fashioned kind. Has not changed a bit. Horchound Drops, pure horchound and sore throat. Horchound Drops, pure horchound used throughout. Anise Drops, for colds; a tasty confection. Almonds, coated with creamed sugar.

JANESVILLE CANDY KITCHEN

GEO. N. PHILLIPS, Prop.

157 W. Milwaukee St. Ice Cream 30c Quart.

A FEW REASONS

Why you will find it to your advantage to select Dr. Richards as your Dentist:

He will satisfy you in every case or return your money, and do it quick.

He will do your work promptly.

He will give you the best of material.

He is able to, and will, give you the best of workmanship.

He has fitted plates, in a large number of cases, where others have failed, and can prove it.

He is sending out his work right or not at all, and expects to build up his business on that basis.

He has had 18 years of hard experience and has LEARNED HOW to do your work right.

He does Painless work.

His prices are the most reasonable in the city.

Offices over Hall & Sayles jewelry store, West Milwaukee St.

MEN'S SUITS brushed thoroughly, steamed and pressed.

LADIES' PARTY GOWNS, organies and silk waists chemically dry cleaned.

CARL F. BROCKHAUS
W. Milwaukee St.

RINK NIGHTS

Monday, Wednesday,
Friday, Saturday,
And Every Afternoon.

ESTABLISHED 1855

—THE—
First National Bank
Capital $125,000
Surplus and Profits $125,000

DIRECTORS:
L. B. Carle, S. C. Cobb,
T. O. Howe, A. P. Lovejoy,
G. H. Hummell, V. P. Richardson,
John G. Rexford.

52 years' record of safe banking.

Careful attention given to commercial and private checking accounts, large or small.

3 per cent interest paid on savings deposits and on demand certificates of deposit.

COAL

NO DELAY in delivery and full measure guaranteed if you order it of

W. J. BAKER & CO.

Coal and Wood Dealers.
Office and yards N. Bluff St.
Opposite Gas Works.
Either Phone.

C. W. WISCH

Up-to-Date
BARBER SHOP
Our Bath Rooms are always warm.
Hayes Block.

O would I were a Lincoln.
To speak such words sublime,
As, "You can't fool all the people
All the time."

No argument is necessary to convince you that people won't stand for being humbugged. It never does any individual any good to take an unfair advantage. You'll certainly find it will pay in many ways to insist on getting the pasteurized milk. It is absolutely pure and healthful.

Janesville Pure Milk Co.
GRIDLEY & CRAFT.
22 No. Bluff St.

PYTHIANS HOSTS
AT ANNUAL BALL

ENTERTAINED NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED LAST EVENING.

THE APPOINTMENTS SUPERB

And Festivities Continued Until Two O'Clock This Morning—Stanley D.
Tallman, General Chairman.

Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, entertained members and friends and their ladies numbering nearly four hundred at a complimentary ball given in Assembly hall last evening. It was the third successive annual event of the kind and in the perfection of appointments and decorative effects, the splendid musical program, handsomely gowned dancers, and the prevailing spirit of genial hospitality, surpassed all previous efforts. The canopy of southern sunlit and chrysanthemum which had been used at several recent dancing parties was again pressed into service, but an entirely new effect was given to the decorative scheme by the striding of a complete underscore of narrow paper ribbons or "serpentine" in colors emblematic of the lodge. This work was done under the direction of Edward Amorphol and the release on signal, during one of the after-midnight numbers, of all of these gay streamers for a carnival fantasy, was also planned by him. This sudden shifting of the upper scenery, brought the half hidden greenery into full view and gave to it an almost startling appearance of newness and charm. Other portions of the hall-room were decorated with the armorial insignia of the order and palms and handsome furniture completed the pleasing background.

Guests were received about nine o'clock by a committee consisting of Chancellor Commander Frank H. Chas. Walker, of Rockford, Miss Natalie Dalton of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Adams, Miss Ethelyn Andrews, and Mr. Chase, of Beloit, Miss Hattie Woodie of Monroe, F. E. Harrison of Monroe. Knott & Hatch's orchestra outdid themselves in the rendition of a program of lively dance numbers. From the opening waltz, all the way down through marches, dances, military schottisches, quadrilles, to the "Home Sweet Home" which closed the evening, the music never lagged, and appreciative words for the players were on all lips.

Among the out of town guests were: Miss Eva Peterson of Chicago, Miss Jane Walker of Rockford, Miss Natalie Dalton of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Adams, Miss Ethelyn Andrews, and Mr. Chase, of Beloit, Miss Hattie Woodie of Monroe, F. E. Harrison of

NASH

PICNIC HAMS 7c LB.
PORK TENDERLOINS.
PLATE CORN BEEF 5c LB.
CHICKENS.
PRIME ROASTS OF BEEF
HAM ROASTS OF PORK 12½c
LB.
SHOULDER ROASTS OF PORK ROASTS BEEF, VEAL, PIG, LAMB.
COMPOUND LARD 10c LB.
2 LBS. KETTLE RENDERED
LARD, 25c.
WAFER SLICING MACHINE FOR COLD MEATS.
HOME CURED BACON 12½c
LB.
NEW ENGLAND HAM 18c LB.
METWURST, BOLOGNA, FRANKFURTS, BLOOD AND LIVER SAUSAGE.
CALIFORNIA NAVY.
EL ORANGES 15c, 25c, 30c DZ.
8 SANTA CLAUS OR LENOX
SOAP 25c.
8 OLD COUNTRY OR BEACH'S
FAVORITE 25c.
PICKLED PIGS FEET.
FANCY TABLE POTATOES 80c BUSEL.
6 EXPRESS TOILET PAPER
25c.
MONSOON FANCY PATENT
FLOUR $1.35.
GOLD MEDAL FLOUR $1.55.
PILLSBURY'S BEST XXXX
FLOUR $1.55.
CORNER STONE FLOUR $1.55.
NEEDIT HARD WHEAT PAT-ENT $1.50.
BALDWIN APPLES 35c PK.
GREENING APPLES 40c PK.
2 CANS PARIS CORN 25c.
JANESVILLE CANNED CORN,
NEW, 7c CAN.
PEKIN TOMATOES 12c CAN.
WALTER BAKER'S CHOCO-LATE 40c LB.
JOHNSON'S NEW MADE
SWEET APPLE CIDER 30c GALLON.
CHICO FREESTONE OLIVES
20c PT.
SHURTLEFF'S PURITY BUT-TER.
MAPLE AND CANE SUGAR
10c LB.
3 OLD DUTCH CLEANSER 15c
HOUSEHOLD AMMONIA 25c
QUART.
FANCY TEA DUST 15c LB.
HOME GROWN BREAD, COOK-IES AND DOUGHNUTS.
SWIFT'S JERSEY BUTTER-
INE 16c LB.
HOLSTEIN BUTTERINE 18c.
CANE SUGAR ONLY.
SWISS CHEESE 18c LB.
FULL CREAM BRICK CHEESE
15c LB.
WALNUT HILL FULL CREAM
CHEESE 18c LB.
2 1-LB. PKGS. 20 MULE TEAM
BORAX 25c.
GREEN ONIONS, LETTUCE & CELERY.
LARGE INDIAN RIVER
GRAPE FRUIT 2 FOR 25c.
3 PKGS. MONSOON POPPING
CORN, 25c.
3 CORN FLAKES 25c.
4 CEREALINE FLAKES 25c.
GROceries AND MEATS.

NASH

Brothend and A. Lewis of Whitewater.
Stanley D. Tallman was general chairman of the arrangements and was assisted by T. E. Welch, Dr. F. G.
Wolcott, Jesse Earle, and R. H. Van-Cleve. The floor committee was composed of E. H. Hahnstrom, Fred H.
Green, George M. McKoy, Harbort
Holme, and Charles Henningsway.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Scotch scenes, at Colvin's tomorrow.
Cream rolls, pure cream filled, at Colvin's tomorrow.

Use Taylor's Solvay cake.
Turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens at Geo. W. Yahn's.

Prof. Kohl's dancing classes will meet this week.

There will be a patriotic-social Friday evening, Feb. 21st, at the home of Holt, Jones. A good time is expected.
Chocolate eclairs filled with pure cream, coated with rich chocolate.

Refresh tomorrow at Colvin's.
The Good Templars will hold an open installation and a Valentine party in their hall tonight. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to be present. Bring valentines for your friends.

Turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens at Geo. W. Yahn's.

Steamed Boston brown bread, fresh tomorrow at Colvin's, 5c a loaf.

Minaret Singing Society danced Tuesday, February 18, at Central hall.
Knott & Hatch orchestra. You are welcome. Don't forget the date.

Read the Want Ads.

EAGO Flour $1.70

Sunburst, $1.55.
Gold Dust, $1.50.
Premium, $1.35.

Head Lettuce 10c

Leaf Lettuce, Radishes, Onions, Beets, Carrots, Spin-nach, Parsley, Watercress, Vegetable Oysters, 5c beh.
Dwarf Celery, 15c bunch.
Large Cal. Celery, 8c stalk.
Green Peppers, 3 for 10c.
Fresh Ripe Tomatoes, 12c lb.
Fresh Mushrooms, 60c lb.
Finest table Potatoes, 75c bu.
Genuine Small Pig Hams,
12½c lb.

Lean Sugar Cured Bacon,
18c lb.

Extra Chunky Picnic Hams,
10c lb.

Sliced Bacon, small glass 10c, large 20c.

Imported Swiss Cheese, 35c
lb.

Roquefort, 50c lb.

Sap Sago, 10c cake.

Blue Label Cream, 10c cake.

Elsie and Old New York 20c
lb.

Fancy Brick Cheese, 10c lb.

Fancy New Black Dates,
12½c lb.

Common Dates, 5c lb.

Beautiful Imported Figs,
20c lb.

Raisin Cured Black Figs,
10c lb.

Bananas, 10c, 15c, 20c doz.

Navel Oranges, special, 25c dozen.

Indian Rivers, 20c doz.

Florida Grape Fruit, 3 for 20c.

Fresh lot Horse Radish, 10c.

Tea Bunks, 10c pkg.

Powdered Chocolate or Swiss Milk Cocoa, 30c, fine.

Mary Elizabeth's Nut Taffy.

Johnston's Chocolates.

DEDRICK BROS.

"TORIK"

WIDE ANGLE LENSES.

"TORIK"

INCREASED ACCURACY OF SIGHT.

"TORIK"

INCREASED FIELD OF VISION.

Cost but little more.
Greater comfort to wearer.

Ask R. H. HITCHCOCK of

HALL & SAYLES

to show you.

Saturday Specials

....AT....

WINSLOW'S

Every article the best, everything guaranteed. The flour we sell is the best Minnesota patent flour. These prices are for Saturday only.

22 LBS. GRANULATED
SUGAR $1.00

GOLDEN PALACE FLOUR
BEST FLOUR MADE,
$1.45 SACK.

500 LBS.
STOPPENBACH & SON

PICNIC HAMS 7c LB.

1 LB. WALTER BAKER'S
CHOCOLATE 35c LB.

5 & 10 LB. PAIRS STOP-PENBACH & SON LARD
11c LB.

JANESVILLE CAN CORN
5c CAN.

1-LB. PKG. SEEDED RAIS-INS 10c, 3 FOR 25c

6 LBS. BEST OATMEAL
25c

CAL. PRUNES 7c LB., 4
LBS. 25c

10-LB. SACK FRESH CORN MEAL 15c SK.

3 LBS. BEST 50c TEA
$1.20

3 LBS. BEST 40c TEA $1

4 LBS. 15c COFFEE 50c

5 LBS. 25c MO-JA COFFEE
$1.00

10-LB. SACK FRESH GRA-HAM FLOUR 25c

3 PACKAGES MACARONI
25c

1-LB. PKG. CORN STARCH,
5c

10-LB. SACK TABLE SALT
10c

TOASTED CORN FLAKES
8c PKG.

JELL-O, ALL FLAVORS,
8c

3 PKGS. MINCE MEAT
25c

ENGLISH WALNUTS 10c
LB.

2 1-LB. FLAT CANS RED
SALMON 25c

FINE BULK OLIVES 40c QUART.

CABBAGE 5c AND 8c
HEAD.

1-GAL. PAIL TABLE SYR-UP 35c

3 GLASSES PURE JELLY
25c

HEINTZ HEALTH BIS-CUIT 10c PKG.

OUR PIE, LEMON, CHOCO-LATE AND CUSTARD, 10c PKG.

FRESH LETTUCE AND CELERY, ONIONS.

E. R. WINSLOW

20 N. Main St.

PURE, FINE
COFFEES

Distinction of aroma, flavor and body attach to a cup of our Reception Coffee as to no other mixture of coffee berries.
That it is the finest product of the best coffee producing sections of the world we guarantee. This is the best at any price and sells at 38 cents the pound.

Telephone us your orders.

Janesville Spice Co.

Milwaukee St. Bridge.

WALNUT GLAZE

A French confection, delightful in its richness. Made under the most sanitary conditions. All Pappas' Candies are quality.

PAPPAS' CANDY PALACE

"The House of Quality"

19 E. Milwaukee St.

Merchants

manufacturers and others in any line of business, will find our facilities for serving them in all departments of commercial banking unequalled. We also solicit the accounts of

Mechanics

and all classes of wage earners, and we guarantee a safe and profitable investment for your funds, whether large or small, in our

Savings

Department, where we pay 3% interest compounded twice a year.
We also wish to call attention to our special conveniences for the comfort of ladies in transacting their banking business and to our modern steel safe deposit boxes. In fact, we offer our customers the superior facilities of a large, up-to-date

Bank.

Our methods are courteous and conservative and our resources ample, and we cordially invite your business.

Don't Miss the Big Banana
Sale

Extra Fancy
Yellow Bananas
at 10c Per Dozen

Majestic Sausage, something worth trying.
Small Sugar Cured Regular
Hams, at 12½c lb.
Layton Loin Bacon, the finest cured.
Fancy Smoked Columbia River
Salmon, 12½c lb.
Heavy Halibut Chunks, 20c per
lb.
Paul Rogers Coffee, 2 lb. cans
75c.
Johnson's Strictly Pure Sweet
Cider, 20c gallon.
Lettuce, Radishes, Cucumbers, Green Onions and Dwarf Celery.
Fine Indian River Oranges, 15c per dozen.
Fancy Navel Oranges, 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c per dozen.
Pure Comb White Clover Honey
20c lb.
Willowdale and Shurtliff's Creamery Butter.
Hickorys for choice Dairy Butter.
Swift's Jersey Butterine, 10c per lb.
Hobbs Butterine, 1-lb. and 2-lb. bricks, at 18c lb.
Good Cranberries, 10c per qt.
Best Patent Flour that is O. K., $1.50 sack.
Richellen and Swansdown Pastry
Flour.
Mazal Corn Flakes, 10c package.
Special Sale Sunny Monday
Soap $4.25 per box.
Simon Pure Home-made Mince Meat, 15c lb.
1 gallon can Apple Butter, 25c.
1 gallon can N. Y. Apples, 30c.
Norwegian Fish Balls, 15c per can.
Golden Spray Primost Cheese
12½c lb.
Gambetta Spiced Herring in oil.
Norwegian Imported Gammel-ost Cheese in jars.
Genuine spiced Holland Herring,
3 for 10c.
Fine Yellow Bananas 10c per dozen.
Holland Cabbage from 5c to 8c per head.
Fancy Canadian Rutabagas, 3c
per lb.
Fine Parsnips and Carrots, 20c per peck.
Red and Yellow Onions, 25c peck.
Superior Tea, the tea with the broma.
Heinz Spanish Mince, 10c per package.
Cavallino Flakes 10c pkg., 3 for 25c.
Don't forget about trying that Baker's Harrington Hall Stool
Cut Coffee in 1-lb. packages.
YOURS TO PLEASE,

Taylor Bros.

215-217 W. Mill St.
Phones—New, 398; Old, 381.

Buy it in Janesville.

From 1855 to 1880 the Rock County Bank occupied the building here represented, which stood where the People's Drug store
now is, facing on Main street.

For over 52 years this bank has stood for what is best in banking, and every trial has only strengthened the confidence it has been accorded by the public.

The record of the past in the best guarantee of the future.

ROCK COUNTY NATIONAL BANK

WE ARE PROUD of the fact that we are agents for the Southwestern Milling Co. of Kansas City, and we are more proud of the favorable reports we are already receiving for ARISTOS FLOUR. Some of our customers bring samples of bread to show us the splendid success they have with Aristos

ARISTOS fancy Patent Winter
Wheat .....$1.50

Golden Glow, Standard Patent
Winter Wheat .....$1.40

Victory, Fancy Patent, spring
wheat .....$1.50

Mosher's Best Standard Patent, spring wheat .....$1.45

We will make a liberal discount on these prices in barrel lots.

We guarantee every sack of flour we sell. If you do not find ARISTOS just a little better than any flour you ever bought for the price, we will give you back your money.

F. H. GREEN & SON

43 N. Main. Both Phones.
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

CAR OF POTATOES
JUST RECEIVED

They are nice, white, smooth stock and good cooks, per bushel .....75c
Select Oysters, per pt. ....25c Genuine Boneless Codfish, per lb. ....15c
Columbia River Salmon, per can .....12½c
Sweet Corn, per can 10c, 3 for 25c, and 12½c.
Early June Peas, per can .....10c, 12½c and 15c
Red Kidney Beans, per can 10c,
3 for .....25c
Lima Beans, per can 10c,
3 for .....25c
Enterprise Tomatoes, per can .....12c
Strawberries, per can 15c, 2
for .....25c
Blueberries, per can .....18c
Red Cherries, per can .....18c
Blackberries, per can .....12½c Yellow Crawford Peaches, per can .....15c and 25c
Heinz preserved peaches, plums, strawberries, and cherries, per can .....25c
Green Gage and Egg Plums, per
can .....20c
Large white cherries, pitted, per 3-lb. can .....40c
Golden Bartlett Peas, per can .....25c
Apples, large, can .....25c
Sliced and Grated Pineapple, 10c, 25c and 30c.
Mince Meat, per package, 10c, 3
for .....25c
Heinz Mince Meat, per can .....30c Club House Apple Butter, per can .....25c
Regular Skinned Hams, per lb. ....12½c
Summer Sausage, per pound .....15c and 18c
Liver Sausage, per lb. ....10c
Mecklenberger Sausage .....15c
Ham Sausage .....10c
Mince Ham, per lb. ....15c
Clover Leaf Bacon, .....18c Open Kettle Rendered Lard, per
lb. ....12½c
Cottolene, per pull. 25c and 50c
Malaga Grapes, per lb. ....15c Cranberries, per qt. 10c, 3
for .....25c
Bananas, per doz. ....10c and 15c California Navel Oranges, per doz. ....20c, 25c and 30c Apples, all varieties, per peck .....25c, 35c and 40c
Hallowes Dates, per lb. ....8c Puritan, Mrs. Austin's and Mod-get's Pancho Flour, per package .....10c
St. Croix Maple Syrup, per quart bottle .....25c Karo Corn Syrup, per can .....10c and 25c
Special on Soap Saturday Only
Old Country Soap, 5 bars, .....25c
Swift's Pride, 7 bars, .....25c
Lenox, 7 bars, .....25c
Santol Soap, 8 bars .....25c
Galvanic Soap, 6 bars, .....25c Roover's Blue Naphtha, 8 bars .....25c
Beck's Favorite, 6 bars, .....25c

F. A. TAYLOR CO.

101 So. River St.
Either Phone, Janesville, Wis.

FAIR STORE

On the basis of present price of wheat there is not a brand of Flour in this city that should be sold for more than $1.40 per sack. All above that is gruff.

50-lb. Sack Falcon Flour .....$1.40
The flour that pleases every time.
50-lb. Sack Kansas Flour .....$1.25
One of the best Kansas Flour made.
A No. 1 Picnic Hams, lb. ....7½c
Pure Kettle Rendered Lard, lb. ....10c Regular 15c lb. Fig Bar Cookies,
lb. ....10c
Regular 15c lb. Date Bar Cookies,
lb. ....10c
bbi. Choice N. Y. Baldwins, .....$3.75
1 doz. Medium Size Sweet Oranges, 15c
1 Can Janesville Corn 7c, 4 for .....25c
15 pkg. Plymouth Rock Gelatine, .....10c
10c pkg. Welmors Gelatine, .....8c
1 qt

NEWS FROM NEAR-BY NEIGHBORS

BUSINESS MEETING OF ECONOMIC CLUB

Annual Business Meeting, Followed by Banquet at Afton Next Thursday.

Afton, Feb. 13.—Afton is to have the winter meeting of the Economic club next week and preparations are under way to make the event a decided success. This popular woman's club, organized for a study of household economics, and counting among its membership, some of the best known women in southern Rock county, holds a series of four meetings during the winter, at various homes within the club's jurisdiction, but the annual business meeting is held in the winter and Afton is selected as the location for this season's gathering. The meeting will be held at Brinkman's hall Thursday, February 20th, and a large attendance is anticipated, as the club now numbers 170 members and Afton is easy of access for all. It is expected that the Janesville delegation will arrive on the C. & N. W. passenger at 9:20 a. m., and the meeting will convene shortly after that hour. Dinner will be partaken of at noon and this is always an enjoyable feature, for in an organization comprising some of the best cooks in the state, the dishes served are fit for the palate of the most exacting epicure. This being the annual business meeting, all matters looking to the welfare of the club will be considered and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. The present officers are as follows: President, Mrs. George Osgood, Janesville; vice president, Mrs. F. W. Owen, Portville; secretary, Miss Matilda Bailey, Janesville; treasurer, Mrs. E. G. Brown, Hanover; auditor, Mrs. H. C. Taylor, Orfordville; honorary president, Mrs. J. W. Fisher, Janesville.

Afton Woodmen had a very interesting meeting last Saturday evening and transacted business of importance. Five new applications for admission were acted upon and three delegates and three alternates to the county convention were elected. Visiting Woodmen to the number of six were present from Florence, Chicago, No. 363, Janesville, for the two-fold purpose of advising the rank and file to be given by their camp this month and to promote a more neighborly feeling between the two camps. The two prospective Woodmen, whose applications for membership were acted upon favorably, were Alvin Draht, Jay Antdel, William McCarthy, Herman Hozapfel and Stewart Oakley. As delegates to the county convention, which will be held at Deloit in the spring, U. G. Walte, W. J. Miller and O. D. Antdel were chosen, with John Brinkman, A. W. Stark and E. H. Griffon as alternates. L. L. Hilton, counsel of Florence Camp, headed the Janesville delegation and with him were Messrs. A. M. Church, George Harnack, Charles Snyder, Charles Cuff and John Cawley. With his majestic mountain, its lovely lakes and its picturesque people, formed a very interesting topic for consideration by the literary society, at its regular meeting, held at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hammel last Tuesday evening. Miss Hazel I. Palmer presided as leader and papers bearing on the subject were read by Edna Engelke, Carrie Antdel, Myrtle Draht and Roy Antdel, the latter reading a paper prepared by Miss Lizzie Skelley, who could not be present. Supper, O. D. Antdel gave a descriptive reading from Mr. Walter Scott's story of the battle of Culloden and E. C. Walte read sections of the latter written by Henry B. North, descriptive of Zurich, which was recently printed in the Gazette. The program was interspersed with musical numbers, piano solos being rendered by Misses Carrie and Laura Antdel, Miss Selma Hammel and Mrs. F. C. Miller and a vocal duet by Misses Evelyn Mueller and Selma Hammel, with Miss Myrtle Draht as accompanist. The next meeting of the society will be held at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Antdel, Tuesday evening, February 25th. This will be the annual patriotic meeting, with a special program to be arranged and announced by the executive committee later.

The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. Josephine Antdel last Wednesday, about a dozen members being present to work on the quilts which the society is making. Some of our farmers took advantage of the recent sleighing to haul their logs to the village, where they will be converted into lumber in the spring, as a saw mill is the latest addition to the industries of Afton. William Denoyer will operate the saw, with power from his water wheel at the first mill and expects to be in readiness to handle logs, both great and small, for any time at all.

A special meeting of Afton Camp No. 2192, M. W. of A., is called for Saturday evening, February 15th, to act on one or more new applications for admission, there being at least one who desires to join the class already voted upon, and perhaps others who will take advantage of this opportunity to apply for membership. Let all members make note of this special meeting and plan to attend. About thirty friends and neighbors assembled at the home of John C. Eddy last Monday evening and remonstrated him that it was his birthday anniversary. Supper was served and a general good time indulged in by those present, who returned home at a late hour, thoroughly pleased with the event. Henry Brinkman and George Bowser of Lombard, Ill., were visitors at John Brinkman's this week, the former being a brother and the latter a cousin of Mr. Brinkman. Messrs. P. J. and J. W. Skelley left last Wednesday morning for a visit with their brother Frank at Hineley, Ill.

Plymouth, Feb. 12.—Messrs. Charles and Vernon Rhodimer were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rummage and family of La Prairie Saturday night and Sunday.

Robb of Hanover were brought to the Plymouth cemetery for burial Wednesday. Mrs. Archie Arnold, son Floyd, and Mrs. M. E. Horkey called on Mrs. Emanuel Arnold of Hanover Sunday afternoon. Those who were sick in this vicinity are on the gain and able to be out again.

Joseph Habyor is visiting relatives in Janesville and vicinity this week. John Noss is busy hauling logs out to the saw-mill. The many friends of Fred Mayle gave him a very pleasant surprise last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Emerson. Dancing was the main feature of the evening. Refreshments were served at midnight, it being the wee small hours of the morning before the guests departed, all enjoying a fine time and wishing Mr. Mayle many more birthday parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Condon of Broadhead spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in this vicinity. No services will be held at the M. E. church Sunday as it is not complete. Mrs. Andrew Rhodimer expects to spend the remainder of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rummage of La Prairie.

Messrs. Martin Swahn and M. E. Harnack entertained the wood awens this week. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Swahn and daughter Abby returned to their home in Orfordville Wednesday after spending the past few weeks at John Swahn's.

Stripping tobacco will be the order of the day for the next few weeks. Mrs. Olof Swahn is entertaining Miss Minnie Anderson of Janesville at present.

NORTH CENTER

North Center, Feb. 13.—The damp weather now will find the rest of the tobacco here removed from the poles. Tobacco-buyers from Janesville were seen on our street Tuesday.

L. Barrett and J. Cullen attended the funeral of Dennis Casey of Janesville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrison, Joseph O'Neil and Edith Fish spent Monday evening at Chas. Goehls.

Mrs. Chas. Harnack and baby were visitors at her parents' home Tuesday.

Eddie Ford of Porter called on relatives Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus John, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blomsh, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kersten and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kojke were guests at L. Barrett's Monday night.

Mrs. Wm. Gundlach and children attended a birthday party at the home of her sister, Mrs. Shaver of Janesville. It is needless to say a good time was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kersten and daughter Emma attended a birthday party Tuesday at Julia Goehls.

Miss Lizzie Kojke has been a guest at her sister's, Mrs. Ed Wolletz of Janesville, the past week.

Frank Kersten purchased a fine horse at Wm. Adels' sale.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Berger and children were visitors at Chas. Goehls' Tuesday.

At the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fossenden a most enjoyable chess party was held Tuesday evening. After a delicious supper was served the rest of the time was spent in dancing. The guests on departing declared Mr. and Mrs. Fossenden the host of entertainers.

WEST MAGNOLIA.

West Magnolia, Feb. 12.—Last Saturday evening Miss Corah Harnack was surprised by about twenty-five of her young friends. All report a very good time.

Mrs. M. Finneran and Lou Tom are on the sick list.

Monday evening Miss Bessie Townsend and scholars took a jolly sleigh-ride to Albany.

Miss Eva Howard of Whitewater spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Euzenbach has moved from Mr. Laudi's house into Mr. Worthing's at Magnolia Corners.

Sam and Sarah Harnanger were seen on our road Sunday.

Henry Meely was home over Sunday.

Howard Edwards was an Evansville visitor Monday.

NEWARK.

Newark, Feb. 13.—A sleigh load of young people gave George Ross a pleasant surprise Saturday evening.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the Leap Year dance given at the Newark M. W. A. hall Friday evening, Feb. 21st. Green's orchestra.

Misses Luella Starr and Hannah Logan attended the play "The Dutch Boy" given by the L. O. G. T., Thursday evening at Broadhead.

A force of thirty men and twenty-two teams have been busily engaged filling the Western Newark Creamery tea house.

Mr. Wilbur Henry and family are moving onto their farm in Bradford which they recently purchased.

SOUTHWEST LIMA. Southwest Lima, Feb. 13.—Moving is the order of the day in this vicinity.

Mr. Smith was a La Grange visitor the first of the week.

Mr. Y. Kuntz and family visited at Amel Frank's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Burg and children visited in Chicago from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mr. Verkes delivered wood to Wm. Woodcock's this week.

John Lachner was a victim of the gripe during the week.

Mr. Will Ried left the first of the week with his car of goods for Shannington, Monroe county, which is to be his future home.

Mrs. Wm. Dixon and Mrs. Jno. Lackner were in Milton Thursday afternoon.

A large gathering of friends and neighbors attended the funeral of Mr. Clements Tuesday.

Wm. Dixon and Thos. Branka were in Whitewater Monday afternoon.

We are glad the sick in this vicinity are on the gain.

COOKSVILLE

Cooksville, Feb. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Savage attended the birthday party of Mrs. Edna Danila last Tuesday evening.

Some beautiful presents were given her and after an evening of cards and a choice supper of oysters and other nice things all went home happy.

Mrs. Stella Perrine from Wisner, Neb., was a caller last Wednesday morning. She will be remembered as Stella Savage, and spent all of her girlhood days here before her marriage. She has been spending some weeks visiting her brother, E. P. Savage, in Madison, friends in Evansville, Stoughton and Stebbinsville, and expects to return here for a visit and several other places.

Christian Torgenson sold his tobacco for 1/2 and 2 cents and delivered it in Edgerton last Tuesday, the first to be sold in this place.

Anthony is troubling Mrs. Hattie Porter and Eugene Van Vleet this damp weather.

The tobacco is all taken down after the last case weather and now it will be busy times again for awhile.

E. P. Johnson was a business visitor to Edgerton last Tuesday.

Henry Stoneburner and son Judd of Deloit are spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stoneburner.

Gideon Newman, Jr., of Ladyville was an over-Sunday visitor at the home of James Gillies.

John Robertson and wife spent last Sunday in Edgerton, guests of Neils Nelson and family.

Wm. Porter and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newman were visitors last Sunday with James Gillies and family.

Joseph Porter and wife were guests of Fred Miller and wife last Sunday.

Mrs. Katherine Miller is spending a few days at home of Charles Miller in Stoughton.

Gideon Newman, Sr., is visiting his son near Evansville.

CALLS FIGHT ON OIL TRUST "BLUFF"

RAINEY OF ILLINOIS ARGUES FOR FREE PETROLEUM.

WAY TO HURT STANDARD

Speaker Ridicules Republican Congressmen for Fearing to Announce Their Candidate for President.

Washington, Feb. 14.—That the fight of the administration against the Standard Oil company was "only a bluff" was asserted in the house of representatives Thursday by Mr. Rainey of Illinois, who spoke at length on his bill placing on the free list petroleum, crude or refined, or its products.

He did not think it was possible, he said, to make a presidential campaign "on the strength of a $20,000,000 bluff and some messages denouncing the Standard Oil company." He had not heard of the fine being paid, and he said "its collection, like the revision of the tariff, has been postponed until after the election."

Way to Hit at Oil Trust. The real way and effective method of limiting the power of the Standard Oil company, Mr. Rainey argued, was to remove the tariff of 15 cents a gallon on petroleum. "Do that," he said, "and admit Russian oil free of duty and you will have struck a blow at the Standard Oil organization."

He charged that whenever a particularly nefarious trust was threatened with some injury it rushed for protection to the Republican party. "The Standard Oil company," he said, at the time when it was threatened with competition in the United States by Champ Clark.

Russian oil, had applied to the Republican party for assistance and "that party, true to its traditions, took it in its arms and folded it to its bosom." As long as the present schedule on oil remained, Mr. Rainey asserted, it could afford to pay the $20,000,000 fine. There was only one way to fight the Standard Oil company, he maintained, and that was to put oil on the free list, and "if the president is really sincere in his fulmination against the oil trust he will recommend that remedy."

Pokes Fun at Republicans. Mr. Rainey held up the Republicans to ridicule for not having, as he said, the temerity to announce their candidate for president. He said they did not have the courage to declare for Speaker Cannon, "because that means the end of the White House dinners this winter for all of you. You have not the courage to say you are for Taft, because that might interfere with your committee assignments."

Mr. Rainey asserted that there was but one man in the Republican party spoken of as a candidate or who really represented anything, "and he represents money and the 'niggers,' and that was Senator Furnaker.

Clark Arraigns Opponents. General debate on the legislative appropriation bill was brought to a close in the house. Several speeches were made on the issues of the day, the most notable being by Champ Clark of Missouri, who commanded the attention of the house for an hour and a half. Upon the conclusion of his remarks he was accorded an ovation by Democrats and Republicans alike.

Mr. Clark arraigned the Republicans for their attitude on the tariff question and said that the announcement that there would be a revision of the tariff after election was simply "in preparation of another stupendous confidence game on the people." He discussed the president's message and said that, whatever his virtues or his faults, the president was not a Democrat.

Other speakers were Messrs. Tirrell (Miss.), Gillett (Mass.) and Hammond (Ind.), all of whom discussed various phases of the tariff question.

Prohibition for Mississippi. Jackson, Miss., Feb. 14.—The senate Thursday passed the statutory prohibition bill by a vote of 36 to 4. The bill is effective December 31.

Rafauli May Go on Stage. London, Feb. 14.—It is announced that there is a prospect of Rafauli, the Moroccan bandit, appearing on the variety stage in London.

Good Health Rule. Drink a cup of hot water immediately upon arising in the morning and once before retiring at night.

Spanish Proverb. Many a son is wealthy and a clever man hard put to.

EVANSVILLE SCHOOLS TO HAVE EXERCISES

On Friday, February 21. They Will Have Washington Birthday Exercises.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Evansville, Feb. 13.—An entertainment will be given by the grades of the public school on Friday evening, Feb. 21, in Magee's opera-house. Special effort is being put forth to make this one of the best entertainments ever given by the school, and everyone should plan to attend. Following is the program: Violin Solo, Lois Wright; Little Women of the Revolution, First Grade; Tom Thumb Wedding, Second Grade; Dialogue—"The Old and the New," Eighth Grade; Operetta—"Little Red Riding Hood," 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th Grades.

Rev. A. L. Whitcomb and wife of Greenville, Ill., are expected here the last of the week and will be guests at the home of Mrs. Whitcomb's brother, Rev. T. W. North. Rev. Whitcomb was a former principal of the Evansville seminary, but later became president of the Greenville college. He recently resigned that position on account of ill health and is now on his way to Los Angeles, Calif., where he received a call to become pastor of a church in that city. He will speak in the Methodist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

C. J. Penhall was in Milwaukee yesterday to attend the seventh annual convention of the State Patternmakers' association. Mr. Juvetne and Will Lyne are there in attendance today.

Mr. Frank Heddles, who has been quite ill with the grip, is very much better.

The debate held last Tuesday evening was largely attended and proved very interesting. The judges were Miss Marilla Andrews, R. M. Richmond and M. J. Fisher and their decision was in favor of the negative. A piano solo by Miss Genevieve Day and a violin and piano duet by Wayne and Carol Briggs was a feature of the program which was much enjoyed by all.

Mr. Chas. Green will leave tonight for a visit to several weeks to relatives in Sheldon, Iowa.

Mrs. Alex. McWhorter and daughter Amy spent Tuesday in Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Van Patton, Mrs. H. D. Morgan, Miss Ella Morgan and Mrs. Estelle Savage Portine were guests of Stoughton relatives yesterday.

MAKE LORD'S DAY ACT ODIOUS.

Winnipeg Police Are Arresting Hundreds of Citizens.

Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 14.—Police officials are making out and serving hundreds of summonses for alleged breaches of the Lord's day act. The campaign started two Sundays ago. The police are proceeding under instruction of the police commission, their action being a counter-movement opposed to action by members of the Lord's Day alliance. Each Sunday police have pounced upon undertakers at funerals, newspaper men taking notes of Sunday sermons, and editors. Another man was taking a bath when the police arrested him.

Gant Convicted of Murder.

Bellefonte, Ill., Feb. 14.—Clyde Gant, who has been on trial in the circuit court here for the killing of Henry Dickerman, was found guilty Thursday and sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment. Gant based his defense on the "unwritten law," but Wednesday his supposed wife took the stand and denied that she had ever been married to Gant.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Purifiers, the great system tonic and blooder.

Itch! Itch! Itch!—Scratch! Scratch! The more you scratch the worse the itch. Try Doan's Ointment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulants (25 cents per box) correct the liver, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

Cures baby's colic, William's daily laxative—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the great household remedy.

Food for thought Food for work
Food for brain
Uneda Biscuit
The most nourishing of all wheat foods.
5¢ In dust tight, moisture proof packages. Never sold in bulk.
NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Sharples Tubular Separator
Pays for itself in one year . . . . .
Here is the comparative cost of hauling whole milk, as against hauling cream alone, as figured out by one dairyman from his own actual experience with both methods:

Cost of Hauling Whole Milk.	Cost of Hauling Cream Only.
20 weeks, 5 deliveries per week, 2 1/2 hours per day, with heavy wagon, time of man and team valued at 20 cents per hour, $100.00	20 weeks, 5 deliveries per week, 2 1/2 hours per day, with light wagon, time of man and team valued at 20 cents per hour, $30.00
32 weeks, 3 deliveries per week, 5 hours per day, with heavy wagon, time of man and team valued at 20 cents per hr., $60.00	32 weeks, 2 deliveries per week, 2 1/2 hours per day, with light wagon, time of man and team valued at 20 cents, $32.00
Total cost per year of delivering whole milk $190.00	Total cost per year of delivering cream only $62.00
Yearly Saving Through Hauling Cream Only.
Cost delivering whole milk for one year	$190.00
Cost delivering cream only for one year	62.00
Difference	$128.00

This difference is great enough to pay for a No. 6 Tubular Cream Separator and have, in addition, $34.00 clear gain the first year. But there is other waste connected with whole milk hauling. Write for booklet, or better still, call and see them.

D. M. BARLASS
JANESVILLE, WIS. COURT ST. BRIDGE.

Read Gazette Want Ads

SUGGESTION FOR NEW COIN FOR THE SPECIAL USE OF CHILDREN

William H. Pease of Kansas City suggests a new United States two-cent coin designed especially for children—good to buy candy with or drop in the Sunday school basket for the heathens. "I believe a coin, valued at 2 cents, larger than the 1 cent, and made of some bright metal, with a child's head on one side and a 'Teddy bear' or some other design on the other side, would be popular with the children."

Woman's Love

The only thing that's constant in the world, The only path that stands above all clouds, The only window where the light ever burns, The only star that darkness cannot dim, Is woman's love.
It cures the greatest of all ills, It shows the lowest of all depths, Forgets, forgives the most and deepest wrongs, Perennial in its life, it finds its home In every clime.
Not coldness, cruelty, neglect nor wrong Can alter, weaken or extinguish it. A woman's love is perfume to the heart; Her love has wrought all miracles of art, And beauty's dream.
It glows as music all along the way, From cradle to the last grand symphony That hounds the soul away on wings of fire; This love is greater, sweeter than all power, Outlasting death.
—Author Unknown.

RHEUMATISM

BODY RACKED WITH PAIN

No other disease causes such wide-spread suffering as Rheumatism. It is a nerve-racking torture, and so thoroughly does it dominate the system, when it becomes entrenched in the blood, that its victims are usually complete slaves to pain. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood brought on by stomach troubles, weak kidneys, indigestion, and a sluggish condition of the system. The natural refuse of the body, instead of passing off through the ordinary channels of waste, is left to sour and ferment in the system because of these irregularities, forming uric acid which is absorbed into the blood, and Rheumatism gets a foothold. As the blood circulates through the body it deposits the acid, irritating substances with which it is saturated, into the different muscles, nerves, tissues and bones. Sharp, biting pains commence, the flesh becomes feverish, swollen, and tender, the muscles and joints throb and jerk, and the body is literally racked with pain. Plasters, blisters, liniments, etc., can never cure the disease; they relieve the pain, perhaps, temporarily, but do not reach the trouble, which is in the blood. S. S. S. is the proper treatment for Rheumatism. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, and by driving out the poison and acid fluids which are causing the pain, and strengthening and enriching the blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. is the greatest of all Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

S.S.S.
PURELY VEGETABLE

tism permanently. S. S. S. is the greatest of all Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE HAMILTON CLUB AND THOMAS D. KNIGHT, ITS PRESIDENT.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 13.—The Hamilton club proposes to make itself the most substantial, political organization in the United States. Plans are under way for the erection of a new $1,000,000 home, which will be one of the most elaborate structures in Chicago. The club is at present well housed, but it proposes ownership of a structure to which it holds complete title and which can stand as an eternal monument to its power and strength.

This ambitious project has been evolved under the presidency of Thomas D. Knight. Mr. Knight is a lawyer by profession and has been in Chicago many years. He is a member of the most exclusive organization in the city besides being a politician of power and popularity. To him is given the greater part of credit for leading the republican national convention for Chicago. Mr. Knight was one of the first boosters for Chicago as the place for the convention and it was at his suggestion that the Chicago delegation lay low in Washington when other cities were scrambling for the coveted honor. This policy is what, in the minds of Illinois politicians, gave Chicago its advantage.

Notice to City Subscribers.
All notifications of change in delivery of the Gazette, such as street address, etc., as well as notification to discontinue delivery, should in all cases be communicated direct to the office to insure immediate attention.

Carrier boys are not expected to convey messages pertaining to these matters to the office, and in order that your instructions may reach the proper authority, this request should be adhered to.

GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

ONLY NECESSARY TO TREAT THE STOMACH

Claim of Central Figure in Recent Controversy Is Novel.

The new theory advanced by L. T. Cooper relative to the human stomach has attracted much widespread attention that the public in cities visited by the young man has been joined by many physicians in a discussion of his beliefs and medicines. Mr. Cooper says that human health is dependent almost entirely upon the stomach. He says that no disease can be conquered without first alleviating all stomach disorders. He further says that most men and women of this generation are half-sick, owing to degenerated stomachs. And finally, he claims that his New Discovery medicine will rejuvenate the human stomach in 90 days.

Cooper has been traveling from one city to another, conducting in each what he calls a campaign of education. For the past year he has met the public in the larger cities of the country, and his success has been phenomenal. Thousands of people have flocked to his headquarters wherever he has gone, and the sale of his medicine has been beyond anything of the kind ever before witnessed.

Possibly the most interesting feature of the attention this young man has attracted is what his army of followers, whom he has converted to his beliefs through his medicines, have to say on the subject. The following statements are from two well-known residents of Chicago and Boston, respectively, and the enthusiasm of these is characteristic of Cooper's admirers generally.

Mr. Edwin F. Morris, of 20 Oakley street, Dorchester, a suburb of Boston, says: "For three years I had not a well day. My stomach was in frightful shape; the mere thought of food would nauseate me, and I really had a horror of anything to eat. All solid food would cause me extreme indigestion, bloating and gas on my stomach, and nothing tasted right. Some time ago I got some of this Cooper's medicines, about which there is so much talk. I actually feel as well and strong as a boy ever since the first bottle. Every sign of stomach trouble has disappeared, and I have a hearty appetite and eat three square meals; every thing seems to taste good. Anyone who knows what chronic indigestion is can appreciate what this means to me. I consider this the most remarkable medicine I ever heard of."

Mr. W. L. Cooper, of 3301 State street, Chicago, says: "I have been suffering for 12 years from a combination of stomach troubles, catarrh, and constipation. I had a gnawing pain in the pit of my stomach, a sort

The Fighting Chance.

...By...
ROBERT W. CHAMBERS.

Copyright, 1905, by the Curtis Publishing Company.
Copyright, 1907, by Robert W. Chambers.

"Poor little devil," said Steward to himself and he rose, adjusted his crutches and started through the park with a vague idea of seeing what could be done.

As he limped forward, the sun level in his eyes, he heard some body speak behind him, but did not catch the words or apply the hand to himself. Then, "Mr. Steward" came the low, breathless voice at his elbow.

"The heart stopped as he did. The sun had dazzled his eyes, and when he turned on his crutches he could not see clearly for a second. That past, he looked at Sylvia, looked at her outstretched hand, took it mechanically, still staring at her with only a dazed unbelief in his eyes.

"I am in town for a day," she said. "Lella Morrice and I were driving uptown from the bank when we saw you, and the next thing that happened was me, on Fifth avenue, running after you—no, the next thing was my flying leap from theansom and my standing there looking down the street and across the square where you sat. Then Lella told me I was probably crazy, and I immediately confirmed her diagnosis by running after you."

She stood laughing, flushed, sunburned and breathless, her left hand still in his, her right hand laid over it.

"Oh," she said, with a sudden change to anxiety, "does it tire you to stand?"

"No, I was going to saunter along."

"May I saunter with you for a moment? I mean—I only mean, I am glad to see you."

"Do you think I am going to let you go now?" he asked, astonished.

She looked at him; then her eyes evaded his. "Let us walk a little," she said, withdrawing her hand, "if you think you are strong enough."

"Strong? Look, Sylvia!" and he stood unsupported by his crutches, then walked a little way, slowly, but quite firmly. "I am rather a coward about my foot, that is all. I shall not lug these things about after today."

"Did the doctor say you might?"

"Yes, after today, I could walk home now without them. I could do a good many things I couldn't do a few minutes ago. Isn't that curious?"

"Very," she said, avoiding his eyes.

He laughed. She dared not look at him. The excitement and impetus of sheer impulse had carried her this far. Now all the sadness of it was clutching hard at her throat, and for awhile she could not speak—walking there in her dainty summer gown beside him, the very incarnation of youth and health, with the sun tan on wrist and throat, and his white, hollow-eyed, crumpled, limping, at her elbow.

Yet at that very moment his whole frame seemed to glow and his heart clamored with the courage in it, for he

"But you brought your maid," "Naturally."

"Then telephone her that you and Lella are dining out."

"Where, silly? Do you want us to dine somewhere with you?"

"Wait you? You've got to!"

"Stephen, it isn't best."

"It is best."

She turned to him impulsively. "Oh, I do want to so much! Do you think I might? It is perfectly delicious to see you again. I—you have no idea!"

"Yes, I have," he said sternly.

They turned, walking past the fountain toward Fifth avenue again. Furtively she glanced at his hands, with the city pallor on them, as they grasped the crossbars of the crutches, then looked up at his worn face. He was much thinner, but now in the soft fading light the shadows under the eyes and cheek bones seemed less sharp, his face fuller and more boyish; the contour of head and shoulders, the short, crisp hair were as she remembered, and the old charm held her, the old fascination grew, tightening her throat, sending through every vein, stirring her pulses, awakening imperceptibly once more the best in her.

"There is no use," she said under her breath. "I can't go back to Lella, Stephen, the dreadful part of it is that I—I wish she were in Jericho. I wish the whole world were in Ballyhoo and you and I alone once more!"

Under their gay laughter quivered the undertone of excitement, Sylvia said:

"I'd like to talk to you all alone. It won't do, of course. But I may say what I'd like, mayn't I? What time is it? If I'm dining with you we've got to have Lella for conversation's sake if not from motives of sheer decency, which you and I seem to lack, Stephen."

"We lack decency," said Steward, "and we're proud of it. As for Lella, I'm going to arrange for her very simply, but very beautifully. Plank will take care of her. Sylvia, there's not a soul in town, and we can be as imprudent as we please."

"No, we can't. Agatha's at the Santa Regina. She came down with us."

"But we are not going to dine at the Santa Regina. We're going where Agatha wouldn't intrude her colorless nose—to a thoroughly fashionable and select common resort overlooking the classic Harlem, and we're going to white thither in Plank's car and remain there until you yawn for mercy, whence we will return thence."

"Stephen, you silly! I'm perfectly mad to go with you!" Then with sudden self-reproach and quick solitude: "Am I making you walk too far? Wouldn't you like to go in now?"

"No, I'm not tired. I'm millions of years younger, and I'm as strong as the pine gods of your friend Porcena. Besides, haven't I waited for this? And under his breath fiercely, "Haven't I waited?" he repeated, turning on her.

"Do you mean that as a reproach?" she asked, lowering her eyes.

"No, I know you would not come on the first sunny day."

"Why did you think I would not come? Did you know me for the coward I am?"

"I did not think you would come," he repeated, holding to rest on his crutches. He stood, balanced, staring dreamily into the dim perspective, and again her fascinated eyes ventured to rest on the worn white face, hatless, somber in its fixity.

"The tears were very near her eyes; the spasm in her throat checked speech. At length she stammered, "I did not come because I simply couldn't stand it."

"I did not think you would come," he repeated, holding to rest on his crutches. He stood, balanced, staring dreamily into the dim perspective, and again her fascinated eyes ventured to rest on the worn white face, hatless, somber in its fixity.

"The tears were very near her eyes; the spasm in her throat checked speech. At length she stammered, "I did not come because I simply couldn't stand it."

was thinking of Plank's words, and he knew Plank had spoken the truth. She could not give herself to Quarrier if he stood firm. His was the stronger will, after all; his was the right to interfere, to stop her, to check her, to take her, draw her back—as he had once drawn her from the fascination of destruction when she had swayed out too far over the cliffs at Shotover.

"I come in with Lella. We're asked to Lenox for the week's end. We go to Stockbridge on the early train tomorrow morning," she said.

"I'm not going to let you go yet," said Steward.

"If I took to my heels here in the park, would you chase me, Stephen?" she asked, with mock anxiety.

"Yes, and if I couldn't run fast enough I'd call that policeman. Now, do you begin to understand?"

"Oh, I've always understood that you were spoiled. I'm pretty guilty of the spoiling process too. Listen, I'll walk with you a little way"—she looked at him—"a little way," she continued gently; "then I must go. There is only a caretaker in our house, and Lella will be furious if I leave her all alone. Besides, we're going to dine there, and it won't be very gay if I don't give a few orders, that."

"I'm not going to let you go yet," said Steward.

"If I took to my heels here in the park, would you chase me, Stephen?" she asked, with mock anxiety.

"Yes, and if I couldn't run fast enough I'd call that policeman. Now, do you begin to understand?"

"Oh, I've always understood that you were spoiled. I'm pretty guilty of the spoiling process too. Listen, I'll walk with you a little way"—she looked at him—"a little way," she continued gently; "then I must go. There is only a caretaker in our house, and Lella will be furious if I leave her all alone. Besides, we're going to dine there, and it won't be very gay if I don't give a few orders, that."

"But you brought your maid," "Naturally."

"Then telephone her that you and Lella are dining out."

"Where, silly? Do you want us to dine somewhere with you?"

"Wait you? You've got to!"

"Stephen, it isn't best."

"It is best."

She turned to him impulsively. "Oh, I do want to so much! Do you think I might? It is perfectly delicious to see you again. I—you have no idea!"

"Yes, I have," he said sternly.

They turned, walking past the fountain toward Fifth avenue again. Furtively she glanced at his hands, with the city pallor on them, as they grasped the crossbars of the crutches, then looked up at his worn face. He was much thinner, but now in the soft fading light the shadows under the eyes and cheek bones seemed less sharp, his face fuller and more boyish; the contour of head and shoulders, the short, crisp hair were as she remembered, and the old charm held her, the old fascination grew, tightening her throat, sending through every vein, stirring her pulses, awakening imperceptibly once more the best in her.

"There is no use," she said under her breath. "I can't go back to Lella, Stephen, the dreadful part of it is that I—I wish she were in Jericho. I wish the whole world were in Ballyhoo and you and I alone once more!"

Under their gay laughter quivered the undertone of excitement, Sylvia said:

"I'd like to talk to you all alone. It won't do, of course. But I may say what I'd like, mayn't I? What time is it? If I'm dining with you we've got to have Lella for conversation's sake if not from motives of sheer decency, which you and I seem to lack, Stephen."

"We lack decency," said Steward, "and we're proud of it. As for Lella, I'm going to arrange for her very simply, but very beautifully. Plank will take care of her. Sylvia, there's not a soul in town, and we can be as imprudent as we please."

"No, we can't. Agatha's at the Santa Regina. She came down with us."

"But we are not going to dine at the Santa Regina. We're going where Agatha wouldn't intrude her colorless nose—to a thoroughly fashionable and select common resort overlooking the classic Harlem, and we're going to white thither in Plank's car and remain there until you yawn for mercy, whence we will return thence."

"Stephen, you silly! I'm perfectly mad to go with you!" Then with sudden self-reproach and quick solitude: "Am I making you walk too far? Wouldn't you like to go in now?"

"No, I'm not tired. I'm millions of years younger, and I'm as strong as the pine gods of your friend Porcena. Besides, haven't I waited for this? And under his breath fiercely, "Haven't I waited?" he repeated, turning on her.

"Do you mean that as a reproach?" she asked, lowering her eyes.

"No, I know you would not come on the first sunny day."

"Why did you think I would not come? Did you know me for the coward I am?"

"I did not think you would come," he repeated, holding to rest on his crutches. He stood, balanced, staring dreamily into the dim perspective, and again her fascinated eyes ventured to rest on the worn white face, hatless, somber in its fixity.

"The tears were very near her eyes; the spasm in her throat checked speech. At length she stammered, "I did not come because I simply couldn't stand it."

"But you brought your maid," "Naturally."

"Then telephone her that you and Lella are dining out."

"Where, silly? Do you want us to dine somewhere with you?"

"Wait you? You've got to!"

"Stephen, it isn't best."

"It is best."

She turned to him impulsively. "Oh, I do want to so much! Do you think I might? It is perfectly delicious to see you again. I—you have no idea!"

"Yes, I have," he said sternly.

They turned, walking past the fountain toward Fifth avenue again. Furtively she glanced at his hands, with the city pallor on them, as they grasped the crossbars of the crutches, then looked up at his worn face. He was much thinner, but now in the soft fading light the shadows under the eyes and cheek bones seemed less sharp, his face fuller and more boyish; the contour of head and shoulders, the short, crisp hair were as she remembered, and the old charm held her, the old fascination grew, tightening her throat, sending through every vein, stirring her pulses, awakening imperceptibly once more the best in her.

"There is no use," she said under her breath. "I can't go back to Lella, Stephen, the dreadful part of it is that I—I wish she were in Jericho. I wish the whole world were in Ballyhoo and you and I alone once more!"

Under their gay laughter quivered the undertone of excitement, Sylvia said:

"I'd like to talk to you all alone. It won't do, of course. But I may say what I'd like, mayn't I? What time is it? If I'm dining with you we've got to have Lella for conversation's sake if not from motives of sheer decency, which you and I seem to lack, Stephen."

"We lack decency," said Steward, "and we're proud of it. As for Lella, I'm going to arrange for her very simply, but very beautifully. Plank will take care of her. Sylvia, there's not a soul in town, and we can be as imprudent as we please."

"No, we can't. Agatha's at the Santa Regina. She came down with us."

"But we are not going to dine at the Santa Regina. We're going where Agatha wouldn't intrude her colorless nose—to a thoroughly fashionable and select common resort overlooking the classic Harlem, and we're going to white thither in Plank's car and remain there until you yawn for mercy, whence we will return thence."

"Stephen, you silly! I'm perfectly mad to go with you!" Then with sudden self-reproach and quick solitude: "Am I making you walk too far? Wouldn't you like to go in now?"

"No, I'm not tired. I'm millions of years younger, and I'm as strong as the pine gods of your friend Porcena. Besides, haven't I waited for this? And under his breath fiercely, "Haven't I waited?" he repeated, turning on her.

"Do you mean that as a reproach?" she asked, lowering her eyes.

"No, I know you would not come on the first sunny day."

"Why did you think I would not come? Did you know me for the coward I am?"

"I did not think you would come," he repeated, holding to rest on his crutches. He stood, balanced, staring dreamily into the dim perspective, and again her fascinated eyes ventured to rest on the worn white face, hatless, somber in its fixity.

"The tears were very near her eyes; the spasm in her throat checked speech. At length she stammered, "I did not come because I simply couldn't stand it."

"But you brought your maid," "Naturally."

"Then telephone her that you and Lella are dining out."

"Where, silly? Do you want us to dine somewhere with you?"

"Wait you? You've got to!"

"Stephen, it isn't best."

"It is best."

She turned to him impulsively. "Oh, I do want to so much! Do you think I might? It is perfectly delicious to see you again. I—you have no idea!"

"Yes, I have," he said sternly.

They turned, walking past the fountain toward Fifth avenue again. Furtively she glanced at his hands, with the city pallor on them, as they grasped the crossbars of the crutches, then looked up at his worn face. He was much thinner, but now in the soft fading light the shadows under the eyes and cheek bones seemed less sharp, his face fuller and more boyish; the contour of head and shoulders, the short, crisp hair were as she remembered, and the old charm held her, the old fascination grew, tightening her throat, sending through every vein, stirring her pulses, awakening imperceptibly once more the best in her.

"There is no use," she said under her breath. "I can't go back to Lella, Stephen, the dreadful part of it is that I—I wish she were in Jericho. I wish the whole world were in Ballyhoo and you and I alone once more!"

Under their gay laughter quivered the undertone of excitement, Sylvia said:

"I'd like to talk to you all alone. It won't do, of course. But I may say what I'd like, mayn't I? What time is it? If I'm dining with you we've got to have Lella for conversation's sake if not from motives of sheer decency, which you and I seem to lack, Stephen."

"We lack decency," said Steward, "and we're proud of it. As for Lella, I'm going to arrange for her very simply, but very beautifully. Plank will take care of her. Sylvia, there's not a soul in town, and we can be as imprudent as we please."

"No, we can't. Agatha's at the Santa Regina. She came down with us."

"But we are not going to dine at the Santa Regina. We're going where Agatha wouldn't intrude her colorless nose—to a thoroughly fashionable and select common resort overlooking the classic Harlem, and we're going to white thither in Plank's car and remain there until you yawn for mercy, whence we will return thence."

"Stephen, you silly! I'm perfectly mad to go with you!" Then with sudden self-reproach and quick solitude: "Am I making you walk too far? Wouldn't you like to go in now?"

"No, I'm not tired. I'm millions of years younger, and I'm as strong as the pine gods of your friend Porcena. Besides, haven't I waited for this? And under his breath fiercely, "Haven't I waited?" he repeated, turning on her.

"Do you mean that as a reproach?" she asked, lowering her eyes.

"No, I know you would not come on the first sunny day."

"Why did you think I would not come? Did you know me for the coward I am?"

"I did not think you would come," he repeated, holding to rest on his crutches. He stood, balanced, staring dreamily into the dim perspective, and again her fascinated eyes ventured to rest on the worn white face, hatless, somber in its fixity.

"The tears were very near her eyes; the spasm in her throat checked speech. At length she stammered, "I did not come because I simply couldn't stand it."

"But you brought your maid," "Naturally."

"Then telephone her that you and Lella are dining out."

"Where, silly? Do you want us to dine somewhere with you?"

"Wait you? You've got to!"

"Stephen, it isn't best."

"It is best."

She turned to him impulsively. "Oh, I do want to so much! Do you think I might? It is perfectly delicious to see you again. I—you have no idea!"

"Yes, I have," he said sternly.

They turned, walking past the fountain toward Fifth avenue again. Furtively she glanced at his hands, with the city pallor on them, as they grasped the crossbars of the crutches, then looked up at his worn face. He was much thinner, but now in the soft fading light the shadows under the eyes and cheek bones seemed less sharp, his face fuller and more boyish; the contour of head and shoulders, the short, crisp hair were as she remembered, and the old charm held her, the old fascination grew, tightening her throat, sending through every vein, stirring her pulses, awakening imperceptibly once more the best in her.

"There is no use," she said under her breath. "I can't go back to Lella, Stephen, the dreadful part of it is that I—I wish she were in Jericho. I wish the whole world were in Ballyhoo and you and I alone once more!"

Under their gay laughter quivered the undertone of excitement, Sylvia said:

"I'd like to talk to you all alone. It won't do, of course. But I may say what I'd like, mayn't I? What time is it? If I'm dining with you we've got to have Lella for conversation's sake if not from motives of sheer decency, which you and I seem to lack, Stephen."

"We lack decency," said Steward, "and we're proud of it. As for Lella, I'm going to arrange for her very simply, but very beautifully. Plank will take care of her. Sylvia, there's not a soul in town, and we can be as imprudent as we please."

"No, we can't. Agatha's at the Santa Regina. She came down with us."

"But we are not going to dine at the Santa Regina. We're going where Agatha wouldn't intrude her colorless nose—to a thoroughly fashionable and select common resort overlooking the classic Harlem, and we're going to white thither in Plank's car and remain there until you yawn for mercy, whence we will return thence."

"Stephen, you silly! I'm perfectly mad to go with you!" Then with sudden self-reproach and quick solitude: "Am I making you walk too far? Wouldn't you like to go in now?"

"No, I'm not tired. I'm millions of years younger, and I'm as strong as the pine gods of your friend Porcena. Besides, haven't I waited for this? And under his breath fiercely, "Haven't I waited?" he repeated, turning on her.

"Do you mean that as a reproach?" she asked, lowering her eyes.

"No, I know you would not come on the first sunny day."

"Why did you think I would not come? Did you know me for the coward I am?"

"I did not think you would come," he repeated, holding to rest on his crutches. He stood, balanced, staring dreamily into the dim perspective, and again her fascinated eyes ventured to rest on the worn white face, hatless, somber in its fixity.

"The tears were very near her eyes; the spasm in her throat checked speech. At length she stammered, "I did not come because I simply couldn't stand it."

"But you brought your maid," "Naturally."

"Then telephone her that you and Lella are dining out."

"Where, silly? Do you want us to dine somewhere with you?"

"Wait you? You've got to!"

"Stephen, it isn't best."

"It is best."

She turned to him impulsively. "Oh, I do want to so much! Do you think I might? It is perfectly delicious to see you again. I—you have no idea!"

"Yes, I have," he said sternly.

They turned, walking past the fountain toward Fifth avenue again. Furtively she glanced at his hands, with the city pallor on them, as they grasped the crossbars of the crutches, then looked up at his worn face. He was much thinner, but now in the soft fading light the shadows under the eyes and cheek bones seemed less sharp, his face fuller and more boyish; the contour of head and shoulders, the short, crisp hair were as she remembered, and the old charm held her, the old fascination grew, tightening her throat, sending through every vein, stirring her pulses, awakening imperceptibly once more the best in her.

"There is no use," she said under her breath. "I can't go back to Lella, Stephen, the dreadful part of it is that I—I wish she were in Jericho. I wish the whole world were in Ballyhoo and you and I alone once more!"

Under their gay laughter quivered the undertone of excitement, Sylvia said:

"I'd like to talk to you all alone. It won't do, of course. But I may say what I'd like, mayn't I? What time is it? If I'm dining with you we've got to have Lella for conversation's sake if not from motives of sheer decency, which you and I seem to lack, Stephen."

"We lack decency," said Steward, "and we're proud of it. As for Lella, I'm going to arrange for her very simply, but very beautifully. Plank will take care of her. Sylvia, there's not a soul in town, and we can be as imprudent as we please."

"No, we can't. Agatha's at the Santa Regina. She came down with us."

"But we are not going to dine at the Santa Regina. We're going where Agatha wouldn't intrude her colorless nose—to a thoroughly fashionable and select common resort overlooking the classic Harlem, and we're going to white thither in Plank's car and remain there until you yawn for mercy, whence we will return thence."

"Stephen, you silly! I'm perfectly mad to go with you!" Then with sudden self-reproach and quick solitude: "Am I making you walk too far? Wouldn't you like to go in now?"

"No, I'm not tired. I'm millions of years younger, and I'm as strong as the pine gods of your friend Porcena. Besides, haven't I waited for this? And under his breath fiercely, "Haven't I waited?" he repeated, turning on her.

"Do you mean that as a reproach?" she asked, lowering her eyes.

"No, I know you would not come on the first sunny day."

"Why did you think I would not come? Did you know me for the coward I am?"

"I did not think you would come," he repeated, holding to rest on his crutches. He stood, balanced, staring dreamily into the dim perspective, and again her fascinated eyes ventured to rest on the worn white face, hatless, somber in its fixity.

"The tears were very near her eyes; the spasm in her throat checked speech. At length she stammered, "I did not come because I simply couldn't stand it."

That Nasal Catarrh

A Prominent Attorney of Leonardtown, Md.

Nasal Catarrh is a nauseating disease anyone who has had to sit close to, or talk face-to-face with a person resking with purulent catarrh. To get a whiff of the bad breath of such a person is to sicken at once and turn away.

Have you ever had to endure, in sickening silence, the hawking and gagging of a Catarrh victim, or have to sit close to such a person and experience a disgusting, appetite-losing, foul odor, which you could not explain and did not know what it was? That's Catarrh, and there are plenty of people who have it. You can get rid of your case without much delay and avoid becoming an object of aversion to others, or even members of your own family, by merely using the simplest cure in the world—Bunsens Catarrh Cure.

Millions of trial boxes are given away annually, thereby risking our reputation and every one that is tried produces immediate beneficial results.

Mr. J. H. Ching, Leonardtown, Md., says: "I have used one box of Bunsens Catarrh Cure and find a marked improvement in my Nasal Catarrh. My wife is using Bunsens Catarrh Cure for Hay Fever and she finds from the use of your remedy an alleviation of a great deal of pain and trouble."

Mr. Jack Lynn, Clintonville, Wis., says: "I have used Bunsens Catarrh Cure for Nasal Catarrh and must say it gave me much relief."

Miss Laura Kline, of Hancock, Md., says: "I have used Bunsens Catarrh Cure for Nasal Catarrh and wish to state it is the only medicine that ever did me any good."

D. W. James, Watertown, Md., says: "I have used Bunsens Catarrh Cure for Catarrh of the nose and find it has done me more good than any medicine I ever tried before."

Two Sizes, 25 and 50 Cents. C. W. Beggs, Sons & Co., Proprietors, Chicago. HEIMSTREET'S DRUG STORE.

His face cleared as he turned quietly. "Child, you must not confuse matters. You must not think of being sorry for me. The old order is passing—ticking away on every clock in the world. All that inverted order of things is being reversed. You don't know what I mean, do you? Ah, well, you will know when I grow into something of what you think you remember in me and when I grow out of what I really was."

"Truly I don't understand, Stephen. But then—I am out of training since you went—went out of things. Have I changed? Do I seem more dull? I—I have not been very gay with me. I don't see—looking back across all the noise, all the chaos of the winter—I do not see how I stood it alone."

"Alone?"

"Not seeing you—sometimes."

He looked at her with smiling, sympathetic eyes. "Didn't you enjoy the winter?"

"Do you enjoy being dragged with champagne?"

His face altered so quickly that, confused, she only stared at him, the fixed smile stamped on her lips; then, overwhelmed in the revelation:

"Stephen, surely, surely, you know what I meant! I did not mean that! Dear, do you dream for one moment that—that I could?"

"No, you have not hurt me. Besides, I know what you mean."

After a moment he swung forward on his crutches, lifting his lip, the frown gathering between his temples.

They were passing the big, old-fashioned hotel with its white facade and green blinds, a lingering landmark of the older city.

"We'll telephone here," he said.

Side by side they went up the great, broad stoop and entered the lobby.

"If you'll speak to Lella, I'll get Plank on the wire. Say that we'll stop for you at 7."

She gave her number; then, at the end of the operator, entered a small booth. Steward was given another booth in a few moments.

Plank answered from his office. His voice sounded grave and tired, but it quickened, throbbed with surprise, when Steward made known his plan for the evening.

"Is Mrs. Mortimer in town?" he demanded. "I had a wire from her that she expected to be here, and I hoped to see her at the station tomorrow on her way to Lenox."

"She's stopping with Miss Landis. Can't you manage to come?" asked Steward anxiously.

"I don't know. Do you wish it particularly? I have just seen Quarrier and Harrington. I can't quite understand Quarrier's attitude. There's a certain hint of defiance about it. Harrington is all caved in. He is ready to thank us for any mercy. But Quarrier—there's something I don't fancy, don't exactly understand, about his attitude. That's why I've expected to spend a quiet evening, studying up the matter and examining every loophole."

"You've got to dine somewhere," said Steward. "If you could fix it to dine with us—I don't want to urge you."

"I'll go. Will you say that we'll stop for them at 7?"

"I don't want to urge you," repeated Steward.

"You're not. I'll go. But—wait one moment—tell me, did Quarrier know that Mrs. Mortimer was to stop with Miss Landis?"

"Wait a moment. Hold the wire."

He opened the door of the booth and saw Sylvia waiting for him, seated by the operator's desk. She rose at once when she saw he wished to speak with her.

"Tell me something," he said in a low voice. "Did Mr. Quarrier know that Lella was to stay overnight with you?"

"Yes," she answered quietly, surprised.

"Why?"

Steward nodded vaguely, closed the door again and walked to Plank:

"Yes, Quarrier knows it. Do you think he'll be there tonight? I don't suppose Miss Landis and Mrs. Mortimer know he is in town."

Plank's troubled voice came back over the wire. "I don't know. I don't know what to think. I suppose I'm a little just a trifle overworked. Somebody once said that I had one nerve in me somewhere, and Quarrier's probably found it. That's all."

(To be Continued.)

His face cleared as he turned quietly. "Child, you must not confuse matters. You must not think of being sorry for me. The old order is passing—ticking away on every clock in the world. All that inverted order of things is being reversed. You don't know what I mean, do you? Ah, well, you will know when I grow into something of what you think you remember in me and when I grow out of what I really was."

"Truly I don't understand, Stephen. But then—I am out of training since you went—went out of things. Have I changed? Do I seem more dull? I—I have not been very gay with me. I don't see—looking back across all the noise, all the chaos of the winter—I do not see how I stood it alone."

"Alone?"

"Not seeing you—sometimes."

He looked at her with smiling, sympathetic eyes. "Didn't you enjoy the winter?"

"Do you enjoy being dragged with champagne?"

His face altered so quickly that, confused, she only stared at him, the fixed smile stamped on her lips; then, overwhelmed in the revelation:

"Stephen, surely, surely, you know what I meant! I did not mean that! Dear, do you dream for one moment that—that I could?"

"No, you have not hurt me. Besides, I know what you mean."

After a moment he swung forward on his crutches, lifting his lip, the frown gathering between his temples.

They were passing the big, old-fashioned hotel with its white facade and green blinds, a lingering landmark of the older city.

"We'll telephone here," he said.

Side by side they went up the great, broad stoop and entered the lobby.

"If you'll speak to Lella, I'll get Plank on the wire. Say that we'll stop for you at 7."

She gave her number; then, at the end of the operator, entered a small booth. Steward was given another booth in a few moments.

Plank answered from his office. His voice sounded grave and tired, but it quickened, throbbed with surprise, when Steward made known his plan for the evening.

"Is Mrs. Mortimer in town?" he demanded. "I had a wire from her that she expected to be here, and I hoped to see her at the station tomorrow on her way to Lenox."

"She's stopping with Miss Landis. Can't you manage to come?" asked Steward anxiously.

"I don't know. Do you wish it particularly? I have just seen Quarrier and Harrington. I can't quite understand Quarrier's attitude. There's a certain hint of defiance about it. Harrington is all caved in. He is ready to thank us for any mercy. But Quarrier—there's something I don't fancy, don't exactly understand, about his attitude. That's why I've expected to spend a quiet evening, studying up the matter and examining every loophole."

"You've got to dine somewhere," said Steward. "If you could fix it to dine with us—I don't want to urge you."

"I'll go. Will you say that we'll stop for them at 7?"

"I don't want to urge you," repeated Steward.

"You're not. I'll go. But—wait one moment—tell me, did Quarrier know that Mrs. Mortimer was to stop with Miss Landis?"

"Wait a moment. Hold the wire."

He opened the door of the booth and saw Sylvia waiting for him, seated by the operator's desk. She rose at once when she saw he wished to speak with her.

"Tell me something," he said in a low voice. "Did Mr. Quarrier know that Lella was to stay overnight with you?"

"Yes," she answered quietly, surprised.

"Why?"

Steward nodded vaguely, closed the door again and walked to Plank:

"Yes, Quarrier knows it. Do you think he'll be there tonight? I don't suppose Miss Landis and Mrs. Mortimer know he is in town."

Plank's troubled voice came back over the wire. "I don't know. I don't know what to think. I suppose I'm a little just a trifle overworked. Somebody once said that I had one nerve in me somewhere, and Quarrier's probably found it. That's all."

(To be Continued.)

His face cleared as he turned quietly. "Child, you must not confuse matters. You must not think of being sorry for me. The old order is passing—ticking away on every clock in the world. All that inverted order of things is being reversed. You don't know what I mean, do you? Ah, well, you will know when I grow into something of what you think you remember in me and when I grow out of what I really was."

"Truly I don't understand, Stephen. But then—I am out of training since you went—went out of things. Have I changed? Do I seem more dull? I—I have not been very

LUBY'S SPRING STYLES

One of the distinguishing features of our shoes, one of the most important considerations we give our patrons the benefit of, is individuality of style. Our styles have been worked out on principles which maintain rather than mar the graceful lines of the foot. The result is a perfectly fitting shoe full of snap and fashion, and therein lies the secret of comfort and case, Luby's shoes are made to "fit the foot" and carry one along gracefully. If you seek footwear of the latest styles and of the highest grades, let us show our ladies' Silk-Kids in boots or oxfords. The three eyelet, Gibson like built on graceful lines and guaranteed to give satisfaction at $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00.

Our spring styles were never more catchy, never more stylish, and never more pleasing.

Added lines to our shoe department insure greater assortment, better styles, and satisfactory fit.

D. J. LUBY & CO.

BEE HIVE

155 W. Milwaukee St.

EXTRA VALUES, EXTRA QUALITIES, EXTRA LOW PRICES.

The above is all any intelligent shopper cares for. This is the place where you will find all of the above.

Best Sewing Thread, 5c spool.
Cotton Batts, 10c and 12 1/2c.
Men's Socks, black and mixed, 10c up.
Ladies' regular 20c value at 10c.
Corset Cover Embroidery, 25c and 35c.
One lot of plain and fancy Dress Goods, 32in., 25c.
Hooks & Eyes, 2c each.
Safety Pins, 3c dozen.
50c Golf Gloves at 35c.
Mittens, 5c up.
Whisk Broom, 10c.
25c Men's Talcum, 15c.
Syrup Pitchers, 10c up.
Salt and Pepper Shaker, 5c up.
Lamps, each, 12c up.

Boys' Knives with guard at 10c.
Large Chopping Bowl, 15c.
Small Chopping Bowl, 10c.
Wire Rat Traps, 25c.
Hair Brushes, 10c up.
Clothes Brushes, 10c up.
Mirrors, large and small, 5c up.
Curling Irons, 5c up.
Water Sots, 75c up.
Sud from Holders, 8c.
Ash Tray, fancy, 15c.
Playing Cards, 10c up.
Scrub Brushes, 10c.
Feather Dusters, 25c.
Oil Cans, 5c up.
Good Shears, 10c up.
Williams Shaving Soap 5c bar.
Nursing Bottles, 10c.

JOHN A. SHANK, Manager.

OUR NEWEST WALL PAPERS

We know will meet your approval. In our immense stock will be found every color, every design, every novelty. The foremost houses have been called upon to show their goods and we have picked out only those which we considered the best from the point of style, quality, and price. We got very enthusiastic for we know we are talking to people who need Wall Papers now or in the immediate future and we are anxious to show these papers. Designs to fit every room, to suit every taste, and prices that range from a few cents a roll to a few dollars. Pay us a visit any day.

CARL W. DIEHLS

River and Milwaukee Streets.

SEMI-PORCELAIN OYSTER BOWLS

These Bowls are 5 1/4 inches in diameter and 3 inches deep. A white bowl decorated with German blue wide border and stripes on a glazed semi-porcelain material. It is strong, yet graceful in shape, and is expressly for serving oyster stews, and they make excellent soup dishes. The cost is 3 for 25c; larger sizes at 3 for 30c.

THE RACKET, 163 West Mil. St.
Everything in the way of Novelties and Toys.

FOR FAIRBANKS TO THE FINISH

INDIANA DELEGATION NOT FOR TRADING, SAYS BEVERIDGE.

WABASH HEARS SENATOR

He Declares the Sherman Law Must Be Modernized and the Tariff Revised to Fit Conditions.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 14.—Senator Albert J. Beveridge addressed the Indiana Lincoln League of Republican clubs here Thursday night, delegates being present from all parts of the state. The address was considered a fitting climax to the most enthusiastic gathering in the history of the Lincoln League. The senator was presented to the audience by E. E. Gaton, the retiring president of the league.

Mr. Beveridge said in part: "The Indiana delegation is going to Chicago for Vice President Fairbanks. Statements are being sent out that, after a few ballots shall have been cast for him, the delegation is to be delivered to this or that candidate. This is an insult to the Republicans in this state which, in their name, I denounce.

For Fairbanks to End.
"The Republicans in Indiana whom we will represent are not to be traded or delivered. We will vote for our candidate until he is nominated, or until he himself tells us to vote no longer for him; and if that time ever comes, the delegation will not be delivered to anyone. The self-respecting, independent men who compose that delegation will then vote for whom they please. As a body, we are going to Chicago for Mr. Fairbanks, and for him alone.

Senator A. J. Beveridge.

"It is not Republican to be reminiscent; it is Republican only to be prophetic. Nearly 20 years ago the Sherman law was enacted. We have traveled a century since then. In that day, the organization of industry had just begun and men were alarmed; to-day we know that the organization of industry, along with the people—and railroad consolidations alone can carry cheaply, safely, quickly the nation's passengers and freight.

Must Amend Sherman Law.
"And so while on the one hand we have provided for punishing the robberies committed by trusts upon the people and put in jail the wealthy anarchists who broke the people's laws, we should also provide that honest men may combine for honest business; honest railroad managers consolidate their lines for honest traffic, that the business of the country may go forward. And so the Sherman law must be amended and brought down to date.

"A straight-out revenue tariff gives everything away and gets nothing in return; a straight-out protective tariff gives nothing away and gets nothing in return. We must have a tariff by which we can open the markets of the world—one highly protective tariff to apply to the nations that will not grant us favors in their markets, and another tariff, still protective, for nations that will give us favors in their markets."

Taft Talks to Lumber Dealers.
Detroit, Mich., Feb. 14.—Secretary of War William H. Taft, who was the guest Thursday afternoon of the Michigan Retail Lumber Dealers' association, talked for half an hour, at the luncheon which was tendered him by the association, upon "the moral awakening recently from business methods which permit illegality and fraud." Mr. Taft, the French ambassador, also spoke.

Trust Laundries Are Fined.
Cincinnati, Feb. 14.—The 11 laundries under indictment for organizing a combine to raise prices pleaded guilty Thursday and each was fined $50 and costs. The trust also agreed to dissolve, and the indictments against the laundry proprietors were nolle.

Reading.
History makes men wise, poetry witty, mathematics subtle, philosophy deep, morals grave, logic and rhetoric able to contend; nay, there is no impediment in the wit but may be wrought out by fit study, where every defect of the mind has its proper remedy. Those that have the excellent faculty of using all they know can never know too much.

ORFORDVILLE

Orfordville, Feb. 14.—Mrs. A. Roll is very poorly.

Gen. Bailey and family of Antigo are visiting relatives and friends in the village and vicinity.

John Vignali, who has been visiting friends in Orfordville several weeks, returned to the village last week.

Mrs. Caroline Gavey still remains very poorly.

H. E. Taylor spent last Friday in Madison in attendance at the meeting of Berkshire breeders of the state. A permanent organization was formed. There were about one hundred breeders present and Mr. Taylor was elected president of the association.

Captain Layton Vail of Milwaukee is spending a few weeks at J. M. Cleveland's and C. S. Dunn's.

H. C. Taylor spent part of last week in Chicago.

Fred Cole has purchased the residence property of the Mrs. Ole Weo estate.

R. Cleveland has been suffering with an attack of grip and neuralgia the past few days.

About forty of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sturks' friends gave them a very pleasant surprise at their home (Haugen cheese factory) on last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and the evening spent in dancing.

Mrs. Laura Truick, who has been ill the past year, died at her home on last Saturday evening. The funeral services were held on Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Mr. Kvale.

Nick Hungen has rented Mrs. E. J. Egan's farm and will take possession March 1st.

Such a surprise as does not often occur was given Rev. O. J. Kvale, pastor of the Lutheran church, on Thursday of last week. About 200 of his friends gathered at the church parlors in honor of his birthday anniversary. Everyone came with well-wishes and it is needless to say that everyone spent a most pleasant day. Rev. Kvale was presented with about $200 in cash.

Railway Shops Burned.
Fishkill Landing, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Fire Thursday night destroyed the roundhouse and machine shops of the Central New England railroad here. The loss will exceed $100,000.

Newton Edmunds, Yankton, Dies.
Yankton, S. D., Feb. 14.—Newton Edmunds, former governor of Dakota territory and president of the Yankton National bank, died here Thursday of paralysis, aged 88 years.

BORT, BAILEY & CO.

The New Wool Dress Goods Are Here

During the past two weeks we have received over three hundred pieces of black and colored Wool Dress Goods, ranging in price from 50 cents to $1.50 a yard. Notwithstanding the great advance in nearly all kinds of dress goods, for a short time we are in position to offer our entire line at old prices.

Serges, Henriettas and Nuns Velling—36 inches wide, strictly all wool; black and a full range of colors, at 50c a yard, worth 65c.

Chiffon, Panamas, Storm and French Serges, Egyptian Crepes, Nuns Velling—All the celebrated "Botany" make; 44 inches wide; all colors including evening shades. Regular $1.00 quality. Our price, 85c yard.

A complete line of Vellies—Extra values at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.

"Opaula Cloth," a new material just brought out by the Botany Mills. A beautifully finished cloth. Ladies looking for something extra fine will be pleased with this. Price, $1.50 yard; black and colors.

Beautiful Shadow Stripes and Plaids for suits; in Broadcloths, Panamas and Serges; at 75c, $1.00 and $1.25.

If you are looking for the material, no matter what kind or price, for a suit or skirt, it will be to your advantage to see our first-class, high grade, low priced line of new dress goods.

BORT, BAILEY & CO.

WETMORE'S Introductory Sale

The purpose of this sale is the introduction of our toilet goods to the public. We are confident that we can please you in our "Doris", the toilet water with a lasting odor, and will allow you to sample it at no expense. Saturday afternoon and evening we will entertain with a phonograph concert, using some of the best French and English records—records that are not the ordinary kinds. Two of the best selections are: La Forza del destino, duet by Enrico Carusa and Antonio Scotti; Poet and Peasant Overture by Sousa's Band.

To every lady or gentleman caller on Saturday we will give a Sample Bottle of "Doris" for you to try. We know you will like it. We know you will like our "Venus" Massage Cream; none better made. All prices during February at cost to introduce the goods.

Hair Tonic, regular $1 and 50c, now 60c & 30c
Shampoo, regular 50c, now 25c
VENUS Massage Cream, regular 50c, now 25c
Skin Food, regular 50c, now 25c
DORIS Toilet Water, regular $1.00, now 60c
Lilac and Violet Vegetol, regular 75c, now 45c
Lavender Water, regular 75c, now 40c
Florida Water, regular 50c, now 25c
Pasteurine, regular 25c, now 15c
Bay Rum, regular 25c, now 15c
Rose Cream, regular 25c, now 15c
Talcum Powder, regular 25c, now 15c
Styptic Pencils, 10c
Perfumes, regular 25c, now 15c

Our New Five Ton PITLESS SCALES

Are Warranted for Five Years

Requires an elevation of only eight inches above the ground.
No mechanics required to install them. Write for prices.

BICKNELL MFG. AND SUPPLY CO.

Opposite C. & N. W. Passenger Depot Janesville, Wis.

Nicaragua Ratifies Treaties.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Senator Don Luis F. Correa, the Nicaraguan minister, late Thursday night received a cablegram from President Zelaya announcing that the congress of Nicaragua has ratified all the treaties and conventions entered into by the Central American peace congress held recently in Washington.

Buy It in Janesville.

Cat Falls on Pedestrian.

An unusual kind of accident occurred a few days ago in Paris. A cat fell from a second story window in the Rue Bonaparte, on the hat of a woman who was passing. The cat clamped the woman's face and destroyed the sight of one of her eyes.